FINDING PURPOSE IN THE NEW YEAR EXPERIENCING GOD'S NEW MERCIES

Lamentations 3:22-23

“The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.”

1. How does knowing God's mercies are new each day encourage you to walk forward in the stresses of life?
What does it mean that God's mercies are new every morning?
2. What does “steadfast love” signify and how have you experienced it in your life over the last week?
3. How does focusing on God's constant faithfulness shift your perspective of life?
How does it shift your thinking of your current circumstances?
4. What does it look like to live out daily renewal in your life?
How does receiving God's unending mercy equip or compel us to show more mercy and kindness to others?
5. How does the message of Lamentations 3:22-23 offer comfort and strength to your life?
6. How has God blessed you today?
How have you honored him and given him thankfulness for his blessings?

May the Lord renew us, strengthen our faith in Him, and remind each of us that He is God of all things!

God bless,
Daryl

GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS

1923

Your mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens; Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

—Psalm 36:5

The author of this hymn, Thomas Obediah Chisholm, was born in a log cabin in Kentucky. At age sixteen, he began teaching school, despite the paucity of his own education. He came to Christ at age twenty-seven under the ministry of evangelist H. C. Morrison. But Chisholm's health was unstable, and he alternated between bouts of illness and gainful employment in which he did everything from journalism to insurance to evangelistic work. Through all the ups and downs, he discovered new blessings from God every morning. The third chapter of Lamentations became precious to him: "His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; Great is your Faithfulness" (verses 22-23).

Thomas later admitted there was no dramatic story behind the writing of "Great Is Thy Faithfulness." While serving the Lord in Vineland, New Jersey, Thomas sent several poems to his friend, musician William Runyan, who was so moved by this one that he prayed earnestly for special guidance in composing the music. Runyan was in Baldwin, Kansas, at the time, and the hymn was published in 1923 in Runyan's private song pamphlets.

"It went rather slowly for several years," Thomas recalled. Then Dr. Will Houghton of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago discovered it and would say in chapel, "Well, I think we shall have to sing 'Great Is Thy Faithfulness.'" It became an unofficial theme song for the Institute; and when Houghton died, it was sung at his funeral.

Still, it remained relatively unknown until popularized around the world by George Beverly Shea and the choirs at the Billy Graham Crusades.

Thomas spent his retirement years in a Methodist Home for the Aged in Ocean Park, New Jersey, where he was frequently seen walking by the ocean and along town streets. Tom Rich, a resident of Ocean Park, recalls his pleasant demeanor as he dropped by the diner, sat on park benches, and fellowshiped with friends at Ocean Park's summer Bible conferences.

Thomas died in Ocean Park in 1960. During his lifetime he wrote 1,200 poems and hymns. In addition to "Great Is Thy Faithfulness," he is the author of well-known "O to Be Like Thee," and the hymn "Living for Jesus."
