Thank you, church family, for every prayer, message, and expression of sympathy during the passing of my mother, Esther Beaushaw.
I am deeply grateful for your love and for the peace found in Christ during this time.

TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY February 15, 2026

Transfiguration Sunday marks a pivotal moment in the life of Christ, inviting the Church to pause and behold Jesus in His divine glory before beginning the journey of Lent. In the Gospel accounts (Matthew 17:1–9; Mark 9:2–8; Luke 9:28–36), Jesus is transfigured on the mountain before Peter, James, and John. His face shines, His clothes become dazzling white, and Moses and Elijah appear, representing the Law and the Prophets. A voice from the cloud declares, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” (Matthew 17:5, NRSV). This moment reveals Christ not only as teacher, but as the glorified Son of God who fulfills God’s redemptive promises.

Transfiguration Sunday emphasizes both God’s transforming grace and our call to faithful discipleship. As John Wesley taught, God’s grace does not leave us as we are but works to restore us into Christ’s likeness. The disciples’ encounter with Christ’s glory prepares them and us for the suffering that lies ahead on the road to the cross. As we move from the mountaintop into the season of Lent, Transfiguration Sunday reminds us that the way of the cross leads ultimately to resurrection and renewal. We are invited to listen to Christ, follow Him in obedience, and trust that God’s sanctifying grace continues to transform us “from glory to glory”(2 Corinthians 3:18).
