"After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. 2 He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." Luke 10:1-2

Jesus sent seventy disciples on an urgent mission. Their timeliness was so imperative that they didn't get to pack a bag or even stop to chat with fellow travelers on the road. They were to quickly reach new populations, teach them about the kingdom of God, minister to their needs, and return to Jesus.

Do we sense the same evangelistic urgency today? Certainly, we live in uncertain times. We struggle to balance the needs of our families, home, work, and all the urgent demands each places upon us.

While all our God-given tasks are holy, how often do we remember those who have yet to meet Jesus? When was the last time spreading the good news of Jesus Christ commanded your attention and energy?

This week we have youth and adults on a mission trip in Pittsburgh. One of the reasons our youth program is so successful is evangelism. The youth are excited about the fellowship and ministry they participate in, and they invite their friends to come and experience it.

Let's be honest; this is not the traditional Lutheran method of evangelism. We have great opportunities for worship, outreach, personal growth, family development, etc., and our typical evangelism plan is to open the doors and wait for people to show us. This plan does not honor Christ, who equips us and sends us.

When was the last time you invited someone to worship, to a Bible study, to W.O.W, to VBS, or to the ice cream social? When was the last time you picked someone up and brought them with you to church?

Jesus, send us out every day to bless the world in his name. Today, Jesus is putting someone into your path who needs to meet you, who has been yearning for a sense of welcome and meaning in their lives. They have been hungering to know and have a relationship with their Creator. They have been praying for a message of love, and the messenger God sent looks just like you.

See you Sunday,
Pastor Jeff

When I close my eyes and think about waves, I am immediately swept away, and sitting in the sand at my favorite beach in California. I don't typically choose to immerse myself in the water. But I am in my happy place when I can sit still up on the sand or walk along the shoreline as the waves come up and crash against my feet. I could do this for hours. The sound is mysteriously calming, and I can think clearly with no distractions. Now, I fully understand that words and phrases such as "calm" or "happy place" or "no distractions" may not be regulars in your vocabulary when you think of volunteering. And VBS is certainly not known for being placed in the same category as a beach getaway. However, don't hide your gift. Use it to God's glory. Jump in and see what God does when you get plugged into ministry. We are able to serve not be served. God doesn't want anything from you. He wants something for you. Serving helps us see people as Jesus sees people. It is people of faith that God uses to bring people to faith and grow faith. Serving helps us see it is not about us. We will never grow beyond our willingness to serve. Serving fuels faith growth!

As we talk about making waves, we want this week to make a powerful impact on your life as well! Regardless of what age or life stage you are in, it's always relevant to be reminded that: God made people with a purpose. Jesus invited people to follow Him. You can trust Jesus with your life. Love others the way Jesus loves you. God can help you change the world around you. And then after the week is over, you can set off for that beach getaway. We hope you will join us to MAKE WAVES at this year's VBS July 25th through July 28th! Dinner from 5-6 and Making Waves from 6-8 every night!!!!

I hope you will join me,
Jenelle Gross

C.A.L.L

Thank you for your generosity and support of C.A.L.L. Ministries and your recent donation of $260.00 and 65 items.

TRISH SIMONTON

Thank you for your kindness in hosting the funeral and luncheon for Laurie Hendricks.

St. John is a generous contributor to the C.A.L.L. Food and Clothing Pantry. It is often asked “What should I give?” or “What is needed?” In response, we are doing an “Item of the Month” donation. Although any item is greatly appreciated, the “Item of the Month” reflects those items that are not discounted. This is one great way that St. John is Making the Love of Christ Known. Donations can be dropped off in the grocery cart in the Narthex or the Box in the Family Life Center.

ing. She hopes to remain until we find her replacement.
