

RECORD <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Record or reflect on the 6 W's (Who, to Whom, When, Where, What genre, and why the passage was written) 2. Read the passage through a second time. 3. Record what the passage is about. 4. Note key and repeated words. 5. Record the main idea for the passage. 	EXPLORE <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Read the passage in a different Bible translation. 2. Write down anything of significance the Holy Spirit draws your attention to. 3. Follow the cross-references and make note of other places in Scripture that communicate a similar message. 4. Select and read at least one commentary on the passage.
APPLY and DO <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Make notes on what the passage tells you about God. 2. Write down what the passage says about God's children. 3. Document the action God is prompting you to take. 4. Write down what you want to remember.

RECORD <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6. Record or reflect on the 6 W's (Who, to Whom, When, Where, What genre, and why the passage was written) 7. Read the passage through a second time. 8. Record what the passage is about. 9. Note key and repeated words. 10. Record the main idea for the passage. 	EXPLORE <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. Read the passage in a different Bible translation. 6. Write down anything of significance the Holy Spirit draws your attention to. 7. Follow the cross-references and make note of other places in Scripture that communicate a similar message. 8. Select and read at least one commentary on the passage.
APPLY and DO <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. Make notes on what the passage tells you about God. 6. Write down what the passage says about God's children. 7. Document the action God is prompting you to take. 8. Write down what you want to remember. 	