

Alyssa Towns

Trinity Kids Director

Alyssa Towns has served as Trinity's Kids Director since April 2021, and brings a deep passion for helping children and families grow in their faith in Jesus.

Alyssa grew up in West Bloomfield, MI and earned her undergraduate degree in Special Education – Learning Disabilities from Michigan State University (Go Green!). She was recently certified through the PCA's 12-month Children's Ministry training program. She taught for five years in public schools in West Bloomfield and Lansing before entering vocational ministry.

She now lives in downtown Plymouth, where she loves hosting friends, reading & drinking tea near the fire, and spending time with her family.

Alyssa loves her Trinity Church family and delights in growing in knowing and loving Jesus more together.