

Trail Ridge Camp Guest Waiver

“The purpose of hosting guest groups at Trail Ridge is to provide Bible-teaching churches and ministries with an affordable facility to hold single-day and overnight events for the purpose of evangelism and discipleship.”

Welcome to camp. We trust your time here will be remembered as a time of rest, enjoyment, and drawing closer to the Lord. Every guest staying at camp must sign this agreement before participating in camp activities.

Dress Code: At Trail Ridge, we strive to honor God through our words, actions, and appearance. All camp staff, volunteers, and campers are expected to follow the dress code, which will be enforced by camp staff. Trail Ridge reserves the right to request any camper to change clothing if, in the staff's judgement, the outfit is immodest, inappropriate, or inconsistent with the camp's standards. It is important that all guest group coordinators communicate the following guidelines to all attendees: Shorts must be no shorter than mid-thigh. Skintight clothing is not considered appropriate coverage unless worn as a base layer. Undergarments should never be visible. Sleeveless shirts are permissible, but tank tops are not allowed. Clothing with inappropriate messages (suggestive language or content promoting non-biblical values) is not permitted. Cover-ups that comply with the dress code must be worn to and from the pool. Ladies/Girls: Swimwear must be a modest one-piece or full coverage shorts and shirt combination. Skirts and dresses must be knee-length or longer, and shorts must be worn underneath for camp activities. Men/Boys: Swimwear must be boxer-style swim trunks.
