Confirmation Classes Begin TODAY

Confirmation Classes for youth began TODAY at 9:45am in the Youth Loft. Confirmation is a rite of passage for youth who are ready to recognize the work of God’s grace in their lives and embrace the life of discipleship as a follower of Jesus Christ. It often occurs during sixth grade at ages 11-13, but it’s also appropriate throughout high school. During these six weeks, our students will study the Bible, explore the meaning of Christian faith and perform acts of service within the church and community. It’s not too late to join the class. For more information please contact Trista@georgetownfirst.com.
