Pastor Robert,

Thank you to St. Andrew's Global Methodist Church

On behalf of everyone at the Bryan Clay House, we want to express our deepest gratitude to St. Andrew's and its faithful members. Your support of our ministry goes far beyond what words can fully express.

You have given generously financially, with your time and through thoughtful material donations. From clothing and meals, to gifts, birthday celebrations and Christmas parties; your kindness has brought comfort, dignity and joy to the men in our program. More than that, you have shown them that they are seen, valued and not forgotten.

Your commitment to walking alongside these men as they rebuild their lives is a powerful reflection of your faith in action. You do not just support a program you help restore hope and encourage transformation.

We are deeply thankful for your partnership, your generosity and your unwavering belief in second chances. The impact you are making at the Bryan Clay House will be felt for years to come.

With sincere appreciation,
Albert Pugh
John Means
