WOMEN OF THE BIBLE

Review

Lesson 9

FIRST DAY: Review and Overview

1. Review last week's lesson on Mary and Martha. How are you applying what you learned from your study?
2. One of the best ways to retain and apply what we learn from our Joyful Life Studies is to refresh our minds through a review. As Christian women we have been instructed in 1 Peter 3:3,4a: Do not let your adornment be merely outward rather; let it be the hidden person of the heart. NKJV
Think of this in relationship to the women we have studied. Which one comes to mind? Write her name and tell why you chose her.
3. Begin your lesson by writing a prayer asking the Lord to use your Review of the Women of the Bible to continue to reveal practical application for your life. Also ask Him to use their examples to help you become a 1 Peter 3:3,4 woman.

*So shall My Word be that goes forth from My mouth;
it shall not return to Me void,
but it shall accomplish what I please,
and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.*

Isaiah 55:11 NKJV

SECOND DAY: Review of Eve and Sarah

1. To remind you of the details of Eve's life, scan Genesis 1:26-4:2. What especially stands out to you concerning Eve?

a. Briefly share at least one lesson you have learned from her life.

b. Describe Eve by completing the following sentence: Eve was a woman _____
_____.

Study God's Word to be wise. Believe it to be safe.

Practice it to be holy.

THIRD DAY: Review of Rebekah and Miriam

1. Review the story of Rebekah by scanning Genesis 24-27. What particularly captured your attention from Rebekah's life?

a. Write one thing you learned from her example that you want to:

(1.) avoid

(2.) imitate

b. Describe Rebekah by completing the following sentence: Rebekah was a woman _____

_____.

*Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
and lean not on your own understanding;
in all your ways acknowledge Him,
and He shall direct your paths.*

Proverbs 3:5,6 NKJV

2. Refresh your memory of Miriam's life by reviewing Exodus 2:1-10; 15:20,21; Numbers 12:1-16. What stands out to you from her life?

a. In what way does her life provide:

(1.) a warning

(2.) an example to follow

b. Describe Miriam by completing the following sentence: Miriam was a woman _____

_____.

*Keep thy heart with all diligence;
for out of it are the issues of life.*

Proverbs 4:23

FOURTH DAY: Review Naomi and Hannah

1. Reflect on Naomi's life as you scan Ruth 1-4. In what way does her story minister to you today?

a. What have you learned from her example that you can apply to your life?

2. Review the account of the life of Hannah from 1 Samuel 1-2:21. What particularly stands out to you about Hannah?

a. How is Hannah a role model for us in:

(1.) her character

(2.) her faith

(3.) her prayer life

c. Describe Hannah by completing the following sentence: Hannah was a woman _____
_____.

*The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon Him,
To all that call upon Him in truth.*
Psalm 145:18

FIFTH DAY: Review Abigail, Mary and Martha

1. Refresh your memory of Abigail's life by reviewing 1 Samuel 25:2-42. Briefly share what especially impresses you about her.

a. What have you learned that you can apply to your life from Abigail's example?

b. Describe Abigail by completing the following sentence: Abigail was a woman _____

She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue.

She watches over the affairs of her household...

A woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

Proverbs 31:26,27a, 30b NIV

2. Recall what we studied about Mary and Martha from Luke 10:38-42, John 11:1-46 and John 12:1-8. What event especially lingers with you today?
