Life Group Questions

Opening Question: What has stood out to you from this weekend's message?

- 1 - When God gives you a mission, you will face opposition. Share a time you have experienced this in your life.
- 2 - What mission(s) do you feel like God has called you to right now?
- 3 - One form of opposition is distraction that pulls us away from what God has. What are the distractions you are currently facing that tend to pull you away from what God has for you.
- 4 - Another form of opposition is intimidation and accusation which causes you to shift from trusting God to defending yourself. When is a time in your life you have experienced this?
- 5 - The last form of opposition is fear & compromise which diminishes your trust in God by shrinking your faith. What has this looked like in your life?
- 6 - What do you feel like giving up on? What situation is wearing you out?

Prayer: Pray Nehemiah 6:9 Together - "Lord, strengthen my hands."
