Nehemiah 5

BIG IDEA: When _____ leaves us _____, _____ leads us to _____.

Notes from Nehemiah 5:

Fighting for your future...

1. Simplicity moves us from _____ to _____.

2. Simplicity allows us to let _____.

3. Simplicity gives us _____ to live with different
 _____.

Monday

READ: Nehemiah 5:1-5

REFLECT: Nehemiah listens before he fixes. He avoids quick solutions, names the pain, and calls out the chaos—famine, debt, exploitation, broken families. Healing begins when chaos is no longer hidden. When pain is brought to light, it becomes something God can redeem. Fighting for your future begins with honesty about your pain and struggles.

RESPOND: Pray honestly to God: “God, help me see my life clearly and without fear.” Then ask yourself, “What areas of my life currently feel chaotic or overwhelming?”

Tuesday

READ: Nehemiah 5:6-7; Proverbs 19:23

REFLECT: Nehemiah stops to think instead of reacting. Chaos spreads easily; we blame systems, people, or circumstances. Chaos drains us, but freedom fills us with hope. That's what Proverbs 19:23 shows us. Reverence for God reorders our lives around what truly matters. Simplicity is not about doing less—it's about choosing better.

RESPOND: Where have you blamed others instead of owning your part? How can you take more responsibility and ownership?

Wednesday

READ: Nehemiah 5:8-11

REFLECT: Simplicity requires the death of our unchecked wants. Nehemiah calls the people to give back what they've taken. As long as desire rules us, chaos will follow. But when wants die, freedom lives. Jesus died so we could be free from sin, death, and the tyranny of always needing more. Simplicity is not loss; it's resurrection.

RESPOND: What desire might God be asking you to release or surrender? Spend time with God and pray, “Teach me how to live free, not driven.”

Thursday

READ: 1 John 3:17-18

REFLECT: Nehemiah governed using his own resources wisely. His life reflected new priorities. Biblical simplicity shows up in our choice to 1) give first, 2) save some, 3) live on the rest. When we simplify, we make room for generosity. Freedom doesn't just serve us; it enables us to serve others.

RESPOND: How could you be intentionally generous? Identify one small change you can make this week to realign your priorities.

Friday

READ: Nehemiah 5:12-13

REFLECT: The people respond with obedience—and worship follows. Simplicity moves us from chaos to freedom, from emptiness to hope. Fighting for your future doesn't require dramatic gestures; it requires faithful, daily decisions rooted in reverence for God.

RESPOND: What is one practice that can help you choose simplicity? Ask the Lord to lead your life toward freedom, hope, and faithful simplicity.

Tennessee Crisis Response

April 26 - May 2

Pathway is partnering with World Renew to send a crisis response team to Carter County, Tennessee. There, team members will complete work projects that help those who have been deeply impacted by Hurricane Helene. Potential projects may include debris removal, drywall, framing, painting, flooring, cabinetry, siding, building ramps, and weatherization on homes that have suffered significant damage. Register by March 25.

Hunger to Hope Meal-Packing Event

MARCH 9-14, 2026

Because of your generosity during our 2025 Year-End Giving, you helped fund 600,000 meals for children and orphans in Haiti—meals that bring real hope.

Now it's time to take the next step and pack those meals together.

During this week in March, our worship center will become a high-energy meal-packing space. In two-hour shifts, we'll work side by side to pack rice, veggies, protein, and vitamins that will be shipped to Haiti through our partner, Mission of Hope.

These fun, hands-on events are great for life groups, friends, and families. Kids ages 6+ are welcome with one adult per child at each table. It's also a great chance to invite a friend to join you in doing something meaningful and impactful—together.

Monday | 6:30-8:30pm

Tuesday | 9-11am, 6:30-8:30pm

Wednesday | 5-7pm, 7:30-9:30pm

Thursday | 12-2pm, 6:30-8:30pm
