THE STORY OF Our DELIVERANCE

SECOND EXODUS: THE STORY OF OUR DELIVERANCE

The Exodus, God delivering his people from slavery in Egypt to make them his treasured possession, is the foundational, identity-defining event for God's people in the Old Testament. Throughout their history, particularly during difficult times, God's people continued to look back and reflect on what God had done to save them. But they also looked forward, longing for a greater deliverance and knowing that God had greater plans for them. That hope and longing is the backdrop for God's Second Exodus – Jesus, the promised suffering servant who came to be faithful when Israel had not, and lay down his life as a Passover lamb, to deliver all people from the bondage of sin and death. As we journey to the cross during the Lenten season, we will explore this hope and longing and the ways Jesus leads a Second Exodus: The Story of Our Deliverance.

March 9: A Lament with Hope – Psalm 77

March 16: Second Chances – Isaiah 40:1-5

March 23: Jesus, Our True Deliverer – Matthew 3:1-4:22

March 30: A New Way of Life – The Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5-7

A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR ANDY

GOD PROVIDES IN THE WILDERNESS

Over the last two months we have done a deep dive into The Exodus, the story of God's deliverance of his people from slavery in Egypt. On our final Sunday of this series, March 2, I will share how it was always God's desire to deliver his people FROM slavery FOR a purpose: the purpose of being his treasured possession, that Yahweh would be their God, and they would be his people, a reflection of his character to the world. But you don't just go from being a slave one day to reflecting God's character the next day. That doesn't just happen overnight. You can be delivered from Egypt in a day, but it takes a lot longer to deliver Egypt out of you. So how would God get the slavery mindset of Egypt out of his people so they could live in trusting obedience to him?

That's where the wilderness comes into play. God used various wilderness experiences to mold and shape his people into his trusting children. God used the wilderness to transform them from slaves to a people who reflected his character. But it wouldn't happen easily. Just as we do, the Israelites needed a lot of work, and they often failed to learn. In fact, it took them 40 years before they even got close.

Wilderness experiences are not uncommon. We all go through them. They could involve a season of spiritual dryness, a health crisis, or a time of trial where life seems to fall apart. Regardless of the specific situations that induce the wilderness experience, they serve a common purpose for the spiritual life: to humble us, test us, and grow us. These experiences strip us down and make us vulnerable. They measure our willingness to trust God when life gets hard. And if we hold on to faith in the struggles, they deepen our relationship with God.

While the Israelites were in the wilderness, Yahweh provided 1) his presence in the cloud, 2) water, manna, and even meat for their physical needs, and 3) Sabbath rest – a radical departure from their days of slavery in Egypt. The LORD met their needs in the wilderness even though the circumstances were harsh and unyielding. And yet, as Pastor Bonnie shared in her sermon on February 16, the Israelites complained. They grumbled against God and against Moses, his servant. Their complaining was an external expression of an internal ungratefulness. It wasn't prayerful. It revealed a problem in their relationship with God. Their complaining revealed why God needed to lead them through the wilderness in the first place – to provide the ideal circumstances for their transformation into a people after God's own heart.

When you find yourself in a wilderness season, I hope you remember a few things: 1) God has not abandoned you. 2) If you trust God, you will grow. 3) There is a difference between complaining to others about God and complaining TO God in prayer. (Do the latter, not the former.) And 4) the number one way God provides for you in the wilderness is with the gift of himself: You will know that I am Yahweh your God. (Exodus 16:12) Never forget, God will provide in the wilderness.

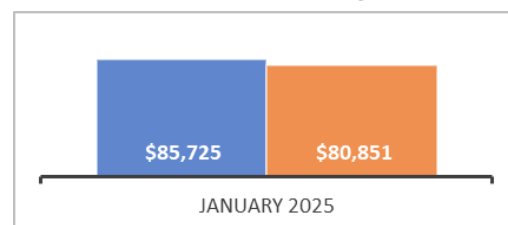

Faithfully,

Andy

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICE

Wednesday, March 5 at 6:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the 40 Days (not including Sundays) of Lent leading up to Easter Sunday. It is traditionally a time of repentance from those things that often distract us. This Ash Wednesday we will take a look at one of the biggest themes from The Exodus, Pharaoh's hard heart. Together we will ask God to soften our hearts so we can put our full attention on Jesus this Lenten season. Join us for worship, scripture reflection, a message, and the imposition of ashes in the Sanctuary on March 5, at 6:30 p.m.

CELEBRATING OUR SENIORS, By: Pastor Dan Perry, Care Pastor

As we welcome the month of March, we are reminded of the beauty of transition. The cold grip of winter is beginning to loosen, making way for the hope and promise of spring. In much the same way, life itself is marked by seasons, each filled with its own unique purpose and blessings.

I want to take time to honor and celebrate the incredible wisdom, resilience, and grace of our senior members. You are the pillars upon which our community stands, offering guidance, sharing stories of faith, and demonstrating unwavering love and devotion to Christ and His Church.

Scripture often highlights the importance of the wisdom gained through years of experience. Proverbs 16:31 reminds us, "Gray hair is a crown of glory; it is gained in a righteous life." Your journeys of faith, the lessons you've learned, and the love you share are gifts that strengthen and encourage us all.

I'd like to encourage everyone to take time this month to connect with our senior members. There is much to learn from their stories—tales of God's faithfulness in times of joy and challenge. Let us seek to foster relationships that bridge generations, allowing us to grow together as a united body in Christ.

Some upcoming events involving seniors and other church members are March 5- Ash Wednesday Service, March 9- First Sunday of Lent, March 25- J.O.Y Seekers Lunch & Program, and March 29- Food Pack Event .

To all our seniors, I want to thank you for your faithfulness and dedication. Your lives are a testimony to the goodness of God. You remind us that every season of life has its purpose and beauty. May we continue to cherish and celebrate the wisdom you bring to our Troy Methodist Church family.

TROY METHODIST KIDS

WHY DO YOU SERVE?

Meet Jeff and Sue Hewitt! They have been an integral part of the TMC community for many years. Even with their busy lives, filled with time spent with their seven kids and nine grandkids, they always find time to serve in children's ministry. They love being with their family, being outdoors, and when they're not outside, you'll probably find them with their noses in a good book!

Their passion for the church fuels their mission to ensure kids have a strong biblical foundation and develop a love for church that lasts a lifetime. As a dynamic husband-and-wife duo, Jeff and Sue currently teach Kindergarten and 1st grade, with Sue also working behind the scenes to prep lessons. Jeff's involvement doesn't stop there – he's also an active member of the school board and volunteers in other ways around town. For Jeff and Sue, the joy of serving in children's ministry often goes beyond what they teach. They've discovered that they receive just as much – if not more – than the kids they're helping to shape.

Their service is driven by a deep love for the church and a desire to nurture the faith of the next generation.

So, why should you serve? Whether you have a heart for kids or just want to be part of something bigger than yourself, serving at church is a great way to make a meaningful difference – both in others' lives and your own. Like Jeff and Sue, you might just find that the rewards of serving bring more joy, growth, and deeper connections than you ever expected!
