NewtonianFreak1665

RECIPE

Mix one cup of H<sub>2</sub>O with one cup of cornstarch. Gradually add more cornstarch until the mixture is solid when squeezed, but runny when poured. This is a non-Newtonian liquid. Follow me and the science community for more experiments!

Dunkin' Deke

RECIPE

Slam 3 cups of cornstarch in your bowl and dribble in half a cup of water.

Keep mixing it up over and over and over until you're tired and ready to hit the locker room! No autographs, please.

Playdough4EVA

RECIPE

Put one spoon of cornstarch in the bowl. Pat it with your hands. Add some water.

Lots of water, MORE WATER!!!!

Then more cornstarch. Smoosh it.

Rub it in your hair. Don't eat it!!!

It tastes yucky.

Ryleigh O'Roarke, aka The Hype

RECIPE

Make a tornado with your fork.

Add whatever cornstarch the wind grabs. Watch out for the big waves of water. When it looks like a disaster in your bowl, save the day and blow it all over.
