

Dear NBC Family,

We personally thank you, our "community Church heroes," for your enduring support. We are appreciative and feel fortunate to be able to share in a community that is committed to supporting those in need. Your compassion and investment are always amazing in impacting the healing of people you may not know.

Sincerely,
My Sister's House

Dear NBC Family,

I can't begin to tell you how much I sincerely thank you for everything, the flowers, the cards, the food, and most of all the visits. I miss being able to be with you, and I do appreciate your remembering me.

Love in Christ,
Beulah Hudson

Dear NBC Family,

Thank you so much for your cards, texts, messages, and flowers. It is a very difficult time for me, but I do feel the love from each one of you. My God and my Bible, and Erica's two sons, are what give me the courage to keep going from such a tragic time.

Many blessings to each one of you,

Angie Jeffreys

A Note from Blaine Pittman. DOME

“Polyphony Conference 2026”

Just a few short weeks ago I had the privilege and honor to travel to Nashville, TN for the Polyphony Music Resources Annual Conference. “Polyphony aims to foster a thriving community of church musicians, offering them encouragement, support, and resources” (taken from the Polyphony website). I have been blessed to be a member of this group for a couple of years now. Last year our conference was held in Atlanta, GA at Smoke Rise Baptist Church. This year our conference was held at Brentwood UMC, just south of Nashville. Through the gracious support of several different friends of Polyphony, I was able to attend the conference on a scholarship since I am a current student at Campbell University Divinity School.

The theme of this year's conference was “Breathe” which comes from the organization's mission statement/blessings, “Breathe, Bless, and Be Well.” Throughout the conference we were invited to take time to sit, breath, and rest. While at the conference I was able to attend several different workshops, reading sessions, and concerts. One of my favorite workshops was led by Dr. Angela Carr Forsythe, who is director of vocal studies at Trevecca Nazarene University in Nashville, TN. Dr. Forsythe also works as a soprano section leader under the direction of Travis Cottrell who is the director of music and worship at Brentwood Baptist Church, TN. While at the conference, I was able to hear several really great choirs. One was the Nashville Children's and Youth Choirs and the other was the Gardner Webb University Concert Choir.

I was thankful for the opportunity to travel and to be there for another conference and am thankful to NBC for the support. My time there was encouraging, and I was able to see and hear ideas that I hope to implement at Nashville Baptist in the future.

Breathe, Bless, and Be Well,
Blaine Pittman
Director of Music and Education
