Missions Highlight

Bible Tabernacle | Venice, CA

For 60 years, the Bible Tabernacle has served as an outreach and evangelism ministry, providing temporary housing, food and clothing, a biblical foundation, spiritual guidance, and counseling according to the Word of God for up to 60 women and children in need. The ministry seeks to glorify Christ by preaching the Gospel to the poor and needy and by teaching them to make lasting life changes through God's Word. All prospective residents must complete a telephone interview at initial contact and demonstrate a willingness to make life changes. Residents are required to adhere to all ministry rules and regulations, participate in all classes, services, and Bible readings, follow a financial management program, avoid psychotropic medications, and serve in an assigned area of the ministry. Looking ahead, the ministry hopes to reopen a 100-resident men's facility in Santa Clarita. Please also pray for the ministry's financial needs as they update and improve the facility apartments. To receive a copy of their correspondence with SCBC, email Tom Benson at tomb@scbc.cc.
