THE PRAYER OF THE DAY

THE FIRST READING Isaiah 25: 6-9

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

After the reading:    R The Word of the Lord.    C Thanks be to God.

THE SECOND READING Revelation 21: 1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

After the reading:    R The Word of the Lord.    C Thanks be to God.

P The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
C and no torment will ever touch them.
P In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died,
C and their departure was thought to be a disaster,
P and their going from us to be their destruction;
C but they are at peace.

THE GOSPEL LESSON    *John 11: 32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?” Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” <sup>4</sup>When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2025 STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

Living (and Giving) God's Love- can you think of a better way to show thanks for all of God's gifts? The 2025 Stewardship Campaign is a perfect reminder of the mission of First Lutheran as we find areas to demonstrate our devotion to living (and giving) God's love.

Next Sunday, November 10th is Stewardship Sunday! This coming week, you will receive a packet of materials in the mail, including a personalized letter, a summary of our 2025 goals and needs, and a 2025 Intent Card. Please review these materials closely and prayerfully consider how your giving can help us achieve our goals. We ask you to bring your Intent Card to church next Sunday as we celebrate and rejoice in God's generosity while living (and giving) God's love. If you are unable to attend church next Sunday, please return your Intent Card to the church office by November 10th.
