RALLY DAY LITANY

P We stand before you, Lord, to proclaim your greatness. You have given us creation, which is the fruit of your creative genius and power. You call us to care for your world. Help us to learn about your world so that we can be faithful to our calling.

C We thank you for creation. WE PRAISE YOUR NAME FOREVER!

P We promise to use our minds to study your world, to use our eyes, and ears to learn, our hands to offer help where we are able, and to use our tongues to discuss, question, and probe.

C We are wonderfully made. WE PRAISE YOUR NAME FOREVER!

P We celebrate ideas, numbers, words, and skills. We celebrate puzzles, paints and colors. We celebrate imagination, instruments and enzymes. All of it, Lord, is a part of your world.

C Your world is marvelous. WE PRAISE YOUR NAME FOREVER!

P We thank you for teachers who teach about your world. We thank you for students who see the wonder of your world unfold before them. We thank you for opportunities and occasions where we can put into practice that which we learn about your greatness.

C WE PRAISE YOUR NAME FOREVER!

P As we learn of life in your name, help us to live that commitment with joy. Nudge us to set higher goals when it is easy; to keep on trying when the work seems difficult; and to use the full potential you've given each of us.

C WE PRAISE YOUR NAME FOREVER!

P We thank you, God, for all of our brothers and sisters. Help us to support and encourage whenever we have the opportunity.

C Give us the desire to learn. Give us strength and energy to be about your work. Give us a desire to do our best.

P Guide us that we might use today, and tomorrow all that you have so graciously bestowed in our lives. To you, Lord, be all honor and glory.

C May our lives be the example; that together we might PRAISE YOUR NAME FOREVER. Amen.

PRAYER of the DAY

P Let us pray. Creator of all, rally us around your Word and renew our commitment to follow Christ Jesus into the world. Fill our hearts, minds and spirits with your love. Empower us to be faithful in our witness to what Christ has done and is doing in our world.

C Amen

FIRST READING: JAMES 2:1-10 [11-13] 14-17

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. [For the one who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.]

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

After the reading: R The Word of the Lord. C Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

P The Holy Gospel according to Matthew, the 25th chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 25:14-30

For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

After the reading:

P The Gospel of the Lord.
C Praise to you, O Christ.

"Will You Let Me Be Your Servant"

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen
