February 15-21, 2026

CHRISTIANS AROUND THE WORLD

SAUDI ARABIA (Persian Gulf) - In recent years, the government has begun a process of modernizing the nation, creating a new openness to American and Western European tourists and businesses. Many Saudis have come to know Christ through digital media, travel abroad and exposure to faithful Christians. Some Saudis are disillusioned by Islam and are more open to the gospel than ever before. Because of the many foreign workers in the country, 4 percent of the population is Christian. Families, communities and the government severely persecute Christian converts from Islam and work to restrict evangelism and Bible distribution.

FRC supports Andrew/Amy Fields (Colombia), Jon/Erin Haverdink (U. of Nebraska-Lincoln)...
