A message from Ben Cole, Senior Minister

And... we are off. I can think of no better way to start 2025 than by diving headfirst into the Scriptures—namely, the book of Acts, the birth of the church. I pray the teaching of God's Word has drawn you closer to Him these first four weeks.

In preparing for this sermon series, it struck me, as I studied through Acts, how often the apostles quote Scripture. When breaking down Peter's sermon in Acts 2 on the day of Pentecost, he quotes three different places in the Scriptures: Joel 2 to explain the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, Psalm 16 to show the resurrection of Jesus, and Psalm 110 to affirm Jesus' ascension and reign at God's right hand. Did you notice that? The book of Joel, the book of Psalms—both from the Old Testament.

One might ask: Why didn't Peter fire off Matthew 27 or Luke 23, where the Scripture plainly teaches the crucifixion of our Savior? The answer is simple—those Scriptures had not yet been written. Remember, we are just 50 days removed from the cross. Peter could not tell them to open their Bibles to the book of Acts; Acts was being played out daily by the Holy Spirit through the apostles.

Think about this: Paul writing to his young protégé Timothy says this: "All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness." (2 Timothy was written between 64-65 AD; the Gospel of Mark—the first of the four written—was around 70 AD.) So, when Paul is writing to Timothy that all Scripture is God-breathed, he's not talking about anything in the New Testament. It hadn't been written yet—Paul is currently writing some of it himself! No, the Scripture Paul is referring to is the Old Testament, which revealed the coming of the Messiah. It had just all been concealed.

As we continue to study through Acts, keep this in mind: The sermons that were preached or testimonies about Jesus, were always based on what the Old Testament foretold would happen. And you won't find one place where they open a scroll and begin to read from it. But you will constantly read where they are quoting Scripture. How is that possible? Easy—what had been concealed in the Old Testament, through the prophet Jeremiah: "I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts" (Jeremiah 31:33), is now revealed in the New Testament. Praise God that He puts both the Old and the New on our hearts—and we live in a time where we have that privilege.

The Messiah came, He died, He resurrected, and one day, He is coming back.

God bless,

BC

P.S. Lots of cool happenings inside the newsletter—make sure you read all about them. I actually believe that's what I am supposed to write about in the article... but what can I say? I get to talking about God's Word, and it seems I can't stop.

Recruiting Cleaners

As part of our newly re-implemented Safety Team, we are looking for some volunteers to help us with facility needs on Sunday mornings. These might be mopping a spill, cleaning up after a leak, or helping make sure the restrooms are always clean and tidy. Our idea is one or two volunteers would be 'on call' each hour, each Sunday and we would only contact them if we need their assistance. We would provide training of how we clean and where to find equipment and supplies. If you would be interested in serving in this way please text 'Clean' to 423-251-1200, or email: davideversole@boonescreekcc.org.

Taking Care of your Heart

We all know that February is heart month- take care of your heart and demonstrate love to someone special.

How do we take care of our heart physically?

- Choose healthy food and drinks.
- Keep a healthy weight.
- Get physical activity.
- Do not smoke.
- Take charge of your medical conditions-high cholesterol, high blood pressure, or diabetes (cdc.org)

How do we take care of our loved ones?

- Take them to dinner.
- Send roses.
- Buy jewelry-A diamond is forever.
- Buy heart healthy DARK CHOCOLATE!!

But what does God say about taking care of our HEART?

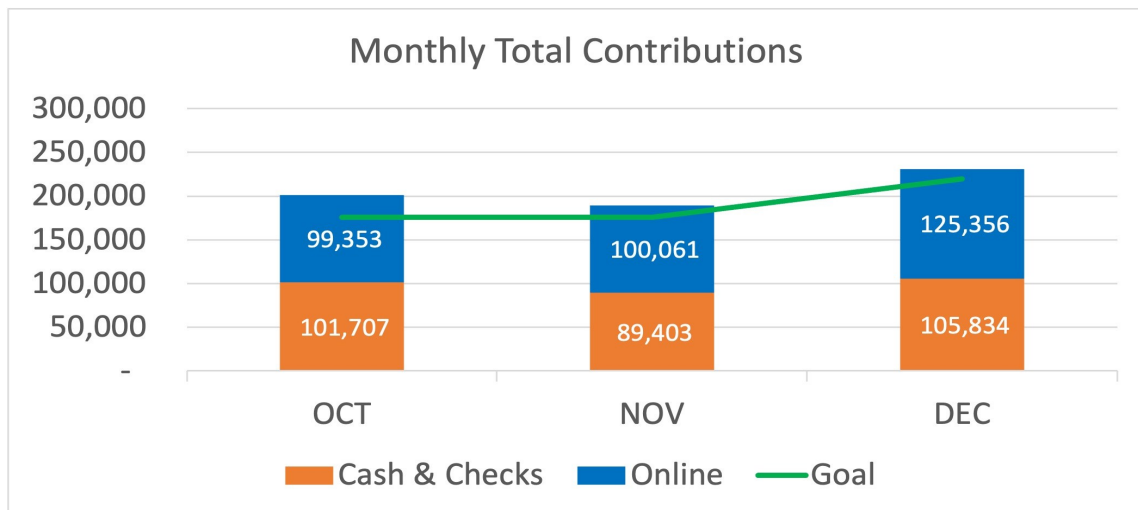

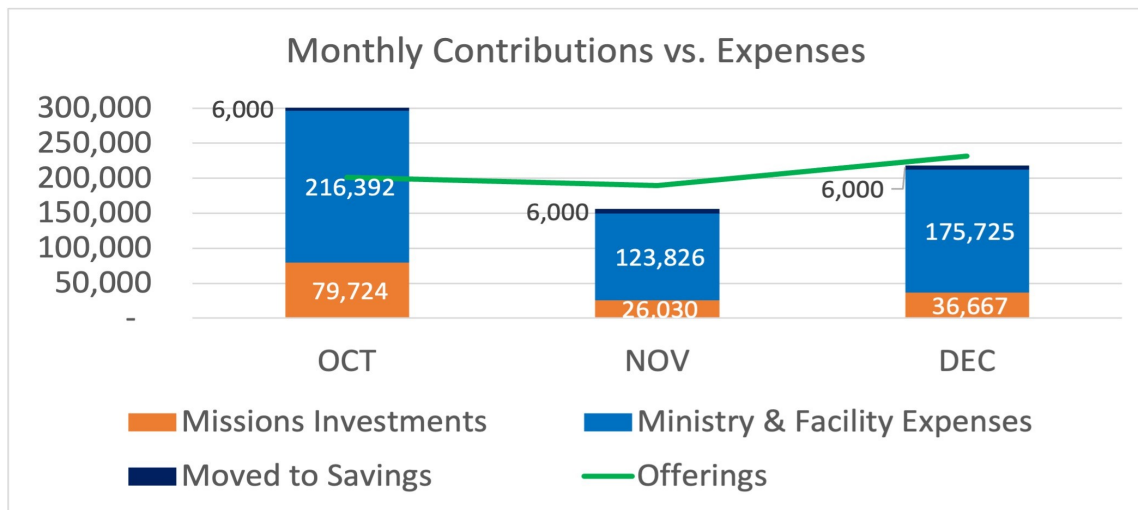

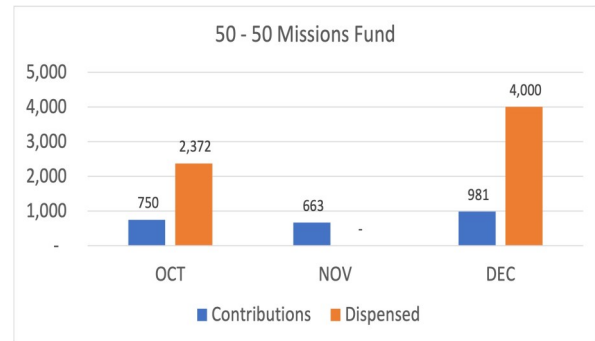

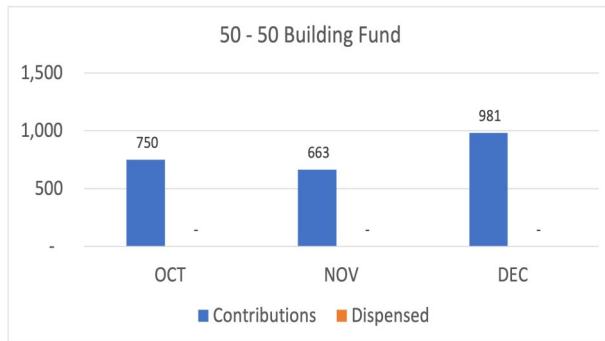

- Proverbs 4:23: "Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it."
- Proverbs 17:22: "A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones."
- Psalm 51:10: "Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me."
- Luke 6:45: "A good man brings good things out of the good stored up in his heart, and an evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in his heart. For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of."
- John 14:1: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me."
- Colossians 3:17: "Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful." (NIV)

The physical and spiritual well-being of our hearts is important in what makes us whole.
