A Season of Celebration and Community Connection

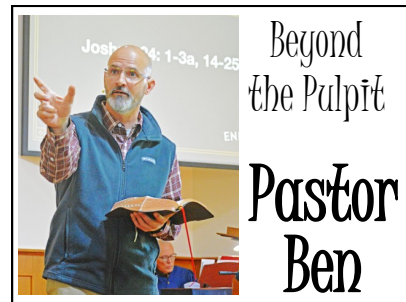

Midway Locust Grove Church is in season with opportunities for fellowship and service, and joyful gatherings. We've already kicked things off with our first-annual Harvest Festival, and we're eagerly looking forward to our Community-Wide Midway Prayer Walk! There's so much happening here, and it's wonderful to see everyone coming together in faith and friendship.

The Harvest Festival on October 27 marked the start of this season and it was an unbelievable success! Families, friends, and neighbors gathered on our grounds to enjoy an afternoon full of festive activities and cherished fall traditions.

Kids and adults alike delighted in the hay ride, playing in the haystack, and exploring the corn sensory station. The petting zoo was a favorite for all ages, bringing plenty of smiles and a chance to connect with the miniature goats! A pumpkin painting station brought out the artists in the crowd, while the fire pit provided warmth and tasty s'mores for everyone to enjoy together. An inflatable bounce house kept the young ones entertained, and a classic hot dog supper capped off the evening with good food and fellowship. We're so thankful to everyone who came and made this day unforgettable. It's our hope to make this Harvest Festival an annual celebration, growing each year into a community tradition.

As we continue this season, we're excited for our next event on November 9, the Community-wide Midway Prayer Walk! This special event is open to all and is designed to unite us as we walk, pray, and reflect together on what truly matters! Beginning at Midway Heights Elementary, we'll walk a 5K route, pausing at different half-mile points for focused prayer on various themes. Whether you're new to prayer or have a lot of experience, this walk is for you! Guidance will be available at each station to support everyone who participates, and each theme will help you lift up prayers for our community, country, and beyond. This is truly an experience for the whole family, and we encourage everyone to bring along family, friends, and neighbors to join in!

This season at Midway Locust Grove is all about growing together in faith, supporting one another, and building a strong, loving community. We're incredibly blessed to share this time with each of you. Let's continue working together to bring God's light to our community, deepen our connections, and create lasting memories. Thank you so much for being part of the wonderful season in the life of our church.

Ministries & Missions

Remember November 9 for Midway Prayer Walk

By Jessica Kempf

Check your calendar for the November 9 Prayer Walk. Starting from Midway Elementary, we will walk together, connect with others in the community, and pray for our community, country and others.

This will be a truly unique experience for the whole family! We will be walking a 5K—bring family, friends, neighbors, children, and church family to join you. And feel free to walk a shorter distance if you want/need to. Please pre-register using the link below. Registration and participation is completely FREE!

The walk will feature a different prayer theme for each half mile of walking. There will be guidance provided while you walk if you need it. This is for anyone who prays, from the novice to experienced. If you'd like to purchase a Prayer, t-shirt or sticker, they are available through the registration link.

All proceeds from sales are for Midway on a Mission, our non-profit organization to support missions of all sizes in our community. If you have prayer requests that you'd like us to add to our prayer walk, please email

prayerwalk@mwlocustgrove.com

We look forward to a great first year at our Prayer Walk!

Sewcial Sisters continue with community service projects.

In October, Margaret Preus, Kathy Koehler, Sherri Perry, Dale Graff, Jill Walker, and Beth Leutjen spent four days in Brunswick at our Fall quilt Retreat. We sew, share stories, eat, read daily Bible scriptures, and strengthen our friendships.

The Sewcial Sisters currently are making lap quilts for The Arbors at Colony Pointe in Columbia. There are 14 residents who live there and we are almost finished with their project.

Colony Pointe is an Americare Senior Living facility at 1510 Chapel Hill Road in Columbia, offering its residents personal assistance 24 hours a day. The Arbors is the Alzheimer's assisted living segment of the Americare facility. For more information on the service, call 573-234-4014.

Ellie Lichte is the 2024 Cross Country State Champion for Missouri. The 3200m event took place at the Lucas Oil Speedway in Wheatland, Missouri. She completed the race in 11:50.17 and also set a new track record.

The Lexington Middle School girls team took 2nd place, only missing 1st by one point! Ellie has had an amazing year in XC, having taken 1st in every meet this season. According to MoMileSplit, Ellie is ranked 1st in the state for the 2000m, 2500m and the 3200m, She is in the 8th grade at Lexington Middle School and the granddaughter of Clete & Kathy Koehler of our Locust Grove congregation.

While it's true the family has missed a few Sunday services, Rhett O'Neal, pictured here, did lead his CYFL Junior Kewpies football team in center-of-field prayer before helping them win the 2024 CYFL championship against the Junior Cavaliers of Jefferson City.

Rhett plays both offensive and defensive tackle, and at the defensive position has multiple quarterback sacks to his credit.

Rhett proudly displays his championship ring, the first of what the family hopes will be many. Rhett is the son of Travis and Michelle O'Neal (and brother to Dalli Jo). Proud grandparents are Joe and Hope Burkart. Congratulations, Rhett, on your outreach ministry and football prowess. All of Locust Grove is proud of you.

First annual Harvest Festival sets standard for fun

By Shayla Roop

Our 1st Annual Harvest Festival was held on Sunday, October 27th from 3:30-6:30 p.m. It was a beautiful fall afternoon with a lot of good ol' family fun happening on the church grounds.

Some of the activities were: hayride, bonfire/s'mores, pumpkin painting, petting zoo with goats, corn play, haystack fun, bounce house, temporary tattoos, and yard games. Everyone had a chance to guess the weight of an extremely large pumpkin (506.8 lbs).

Carter Seever was the closest with a guess of 500 lbs and he won a gift card to Andy's Frozen Custard. Hotdogs and chips were served for dinner. Thank you to all the volunteers who helped make this event a success!

Tattoos to remember the fun on our church lawn..

The petting zoo was equally fun for all ages.

Searching the hay or corn kernels was a challenge but also rewarding.

A variety of yard games made for a fun event for all.

Everyone who wanted one had their own pumpkin to paint.

Once again Billy Cook made hotdogs, served with chips by staff hosts for those attending the event.

Below, watching the Chiefs game and cooking s'mores.

The Bensussen wagon made the perfect hayride. Below, Carter Seever with his reward for guessing the weight.

The story behind the pumpkin By Kevin Yaeger

Kyle and Suzanne (Yaeger) Gavin grew the giant pumpkins at their home in Chesterfield MO. Kyle started the pumpkins in grow tents in their garage in February. Kyle had purchased the seeds for $50 each.

Last year he had beautiful plants and a ground hog ate them. This year, he put up a 9' tall fence that also went 2' deep in the ground. His next line of defense was an electric fence and then a motion detector that turned on the sprinkler system.

Soil samples helped him give the plants the correct nutrients to grow to giant proportions.

While his pumpkin was the 4th largest in the state, my granddaughter won the youth division. Vivian with her pumpkin.

Falling

Each autumn with great anticipation
as sunlight streams through weary trees,
God breathes a sigh - a gentle goodbye.
Released from all which held them to the past,
leaves gracefully in unison drift, swirl, dance, twirl.
With great importance this ritual plays within me.
Torn between melancholy and excitement ... fearful that perhaps the time has passed and I must wait yet another year to witness the miracle:
this end - this beginning of yet another season.
In its finality, a comforting reality of hopefulness,
and once again anticipation of the promise which awaits us all.
The renewal and reminder of the cycle of our lives.

Second Tuesday Lunch to report on Reservation trip

Members of our church family have been supporting and volunteering at Re-Member at the Pine Ridge Oglala Lakota Reservation for many years and it was always a desire of ours to attend. It finally worked out in 2024! The experience was amazing. We developed a deeper bond of friendship and family with our group of 6 from church that made the trip together. We shared meals on the road, hotel rooms, chats and laughter and new knowledge about each other while riding in the car and gathering in the evenings before bedtime to share our experiences of the day. Several of the other attendees actually thought our group members were related!

Jana's reflections: even though I'm the wife of a carpenter/builder/cabinet maker, I really don't have much experience with tools. I had a concern about that, knowing that we were going to be building bunk beds and outhouses and ramps and porches. No worries! The work team leaders were very patient and helpful and provided great education on what to do. There was such satisfaction in going to someone's home and putting together the pieces of the bunk beds (with a screw gun!), providing a new mattress and a brand new set of sheets and pillows. It was wonderful to know that night they would be sleeping in a new bed instead of on the floor.

Jerry's reflections: I enjoyed the camaraderie and getting to know our church members on a deeper level. I was impressed by the passion and dedication of both the staff members and the presenters at our evening gatherings. I truly enjoyed my time in the on-campus workshop. I could have stayed and worked in the shop the entire week. It was great to be able to use my skills to do the work and also be able to teach other members of our team.

I was encouraged by the work being done by Re-Member and feel like they are actually making a difference in the lives of the Lakota people.

BE THERE OR BE SQUARE and join us at the SECOND TUESDAY LUNCH on NOVEMBER 8th for an in-person account of our time at Re-Member. We'd love for you to hear more about Re-Member and answer any of your questions. Jerry and Jana Wirth

The Back Row By Gene Baumann

On those rare days when I'm not busy with some project, I enjoy browsing Facebook on my cell phone. I have discovered a great variety of short videos that range from just plain fun to deeply inspiring.

Jimmy Buckley's song, "My Mother," appeared during one of my viewing sessions. I had not heard of Jimmy or the song, but thought it worth listening. It made a significant impact on me.

As I listened to Jimmy's tribute to his mother, I involuntarily began to reminisce about my mother, who has been gone 36 years. Her parents came to America from Norway as young children of separate families, both named Larson, settling in an area of Illinois known as Little Norway.

The kids grew up, married, and moved to South Dakota where my mother was born. As a young lady she met an itinerant harvest worker from St. Louis who won her heart. They were married and produced two girls and two boys, of which I am the youngest.

When I was five or six years old my father went to Washington state to help build the Hanford Nuclear Site. That was the last we saw of him; Mom became a single-mom before it was popular, and set the standard for what that means. She went to work in the local glove factory and proceeded to raise her family, with the help of our small-town neighbors. I have nothing but good memories of those years.

After hearing that song, I couldn't resist telling you my reaction to it and to encourage you to call your mother if she is still alive, and to call back her memory if she's gone.
