In recognition of Black History Month, the cover art is a quilt made by the African American artist Harriet Powers (1837-1910) called "Harriet Power's Bible Quilt". The piece depicts stories from the bible and is sometimes referred to as a "quilted sermon". What stories do you see within it's stitching?

Lent 2026

Lent is often associated with themes like repentance, prayer, piety, and self-discipline. These practices matter, and they can deepen our personal faith. But they can also obscure the larger movement of the season: the journey to the cross, Jesus' confrontation with the powers of this world, and his ultimate victory over them.

In a time of profound global turmoil, it feels especially important to pay attention to how Jesus walks this path. The kingdom of God looks nothing like the kingdoms we know. It is not built on domination or fear, but on love, truth, vulnerability, and hope. Following Jesus toward the cross exposes the costs, risks, and resistance that come with living this way,

Ash Wednesday

FEBRUARY 18, 2026

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent - a season of reflection, repentance, and hope. Join us for worship on Wednesday at 6:30 pm, as we gather for prayer, scripture, and the imposition of ashes. As part of this service, we will name not only our personal sin but the shared wounds of our world. The ashes are not just a sign of mortality, but also of truth-telling and solidarity.

Before the service, you're invited to a simple soup supper at 5:45 pm, offering a chance to slow down, connect, and begin the evening together.

We also need volunteers to help with the meal and hospitality. If you're able to serve, please sign up here. All are welcome. Come as you are.

as well as the surprising gifts that emerge along the journey.

Lent can also become overly individualistic, focused on what I give up or I take on. Yet the faith Jesus teaches is deeply relational. We are formed not in isolation, but in community: learning together what it means to follow Christ faithfully in the midst of a broken world.

This year, the lectionary invites us to hold all of this together. As we move toward the cross, we will explore what it means to walk with Jesus—and with one another—toward the new life that is already coming into view. I hope you'll join us as we journey together through this season of honesty, courage, and hope.

MISSION

Bluegrass Gives for E7 Kids

Bluegrass Gives matching gifts day for E7 Kids Cafe was a powerful reminder of just how deeply supported our kids truly are. Without wonderful people like you, we can't imagine how we would continue providing all that we do for them each day. Your financial generosity and the precious time you give mean more to us than we can express. You didn't just give once, you showed up in a way that made a lasting impact on our kids and our mission. Thank you for being part of this incredible community!

Social Work Office Update

The social work department is starting the new year with flair. I want to express my gratitude to everyone who has contributed to the constantly evolving clothing closet! This past Wednesday, there were several comments like, "you guys have great stuff" and "I love coming here, you never know what treasures you'll find." There is still discussion about adding an extra day, but that would require two more volunteers. If you enjoy organizing clothes and engaging with a diverse group of people, you might be a perfect fit. Please reach out to Ashlee via email at Ashlee@maxpres.org.

Kroger Rewards help feed our Community!

You may notice the line item in the church budget for Coupons for Missions. What is that? What does it mean? It simply refers to the proceeds we receive from the Kroger Rewards Program. Since the creation of the Kroger Rewards system in 2003, church members connected their Kroger Reward card to benefit Maxwell Street and its hunger ministries. Sign in to your Kroger account, select Community Rewards and choose Maxwell Street (VK950). We appreciate it!

Social Work Wishlist

The social work department is also asking for toilet paper, and you can check the Amazon wish list for the other items they need including winter gloves, first aid supplies, and personal hygiene products.

Mission Committee Coat Drive

Throughout the winter months, The MSPC Mission Committee will be gathering new and lightly used shoes for adults including practical boots, tennis shoes, work boots, hiking boots, etc. for our neighbors at Thursday Night Meals and the Clothing Drive. Heavy winter hats, socks, and gloves are also welcome!

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

The Session gathered on Saturday, January 11th, for our year-opening retreat and training. Our time together began with worship. We were reminded of our shared purpose and the importance of faithful leadership. Together, we reflected on our calling as elders and on how God is shaping our life together as a congregation in 2026, especially in light of our changing neighborhood and broader trends in church life.

The retreat included guided theological reflection, conversation about the nature of Christian leadership, and practical training rooted in our responsibilities as a Session. Elders explored how commitment, discernment, and accountability function not only as institutional requirements but as spiritual practices that sustain healthy community and faithful decision-making.

Elders were also given time to meet with each member of the staff in small groups to discuss how the staff supports the congregation in accomplishing its sense of mission. Significant time was devoted to listening to one another, to the realities facing our congregation and wider world, and to the movement of the Spirit among us. The training reinforced our shared understanding of the Session's role in supporting worship, mission, pastoral care, and the long-term vitality of the church.

During the retreat, we had our first meeting of the year, at which elders selected which committees they will serve on in 2026. The Session also approved a proposal to house the Community Response Coalition of Kentucky (CRCKY) in the Blevins House. More information about this exciting partnership will be forthcoming. Given the work we were able to accomplish at our first gathering, I'm looking forward to the year ahead and what God has in store for us. Please make praying for your Session a regular practice and look for ways that you can help contribute to the life of our congregation.

This is an ongoing class that centers on discussion of "From Judgement to Hope: A Study on the Prophets" by Walter Brueggeman. While conservative interpreters might believe that prophets were predictors and progressives believe the prophets to be simply social advocates, Walter Brueggemann argues that the prophets were emancipated imaginers of alternative. Emancipated from the dominant thinking of their societies, the prophets imagined an alternative reality and invited listeners to join them in their commitment to that new reality. Join us Wednesdays at 10:30AM in the Library.

MORE NEWS

Welcome, Hannah Allen

We're delighted to welcome Hannah Allen as our new Director of Church Growth and Communications, beginning January 1, 2026.

Hannah brings a rare combination of creative vision, community-building experience, and practical leadership to this role. As Director, she will oversee all aspects of Maxwell Street's print and digital communications, support our worship and ministry teams with clear, compelling storytelling, and help us strengthen the ways we welcome, connect with, and learn from new and returning participants in the life of the church.

Hannah is deeply rooted in the Lexington community. She is Director of Kenwick Porch Fest, a community music festival featuring musicians of all genres on intimate front porch "venues" throughout Kenwick neighborhood. She is also the founder of LexHelps, a website that connects people with meaningful volunteer opportunities that fit their skills and availability. Her work consistently reflects a passion for connection, accessibility, and helping communities flourish.

With a background in urban geography, historic preservation, and civic arts, Hannah approaches communication not just as design or promotion, but as relationship-building, storytelling, and creating spaces where people feel seen and invited to participate. Her experience with public institutions, nonprofits, and community organizations will serve Maxwell Street well as we continue to share our mission beyond our walls.

We are grateful for the gifts Hannah brings and excited for the ways she will help us grow faithfully, creatively, and together.

A Mission for Blevins House

It has been used as a home for a family, a sorority, an educational space, a winter shelter for the homeless, a space for mission groups, and more. With fewer churches engaging in mission trips and the community winter shelter program folding during Covid, the second floor of the Blevins House has been underutilized in the past few years. It's time to discern what God is calling us to do next with this space. Join Matt for a conversation following worship on March 8th in the Fellowship Hall to discuss what God might be calling us to do with the second floor of the Blevins House.

Protecting Children from Gun Violence- Action Circles

From the Presbyterian News Service

LOUISVILLE — In the face of national and international turmoil, the Rev. Jimmie Hawkins offered encouragement Wednesday, January 23rd to those who may be feeling weary about the state of humanity.

Hawkins, advocacy director for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), spoke during a midweek chapel service for staff members of the Unified Agency of the PC(USA). The online service honored the life and witness of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and paid tribute to other notable figures, including Renee Nicole Good, a mother fatally wounded by a U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement officer recently in Minnesota. Using scripture from Matthew and Micah, Hawkins stressed the importance of nonviolence and noted various crises in the world, from suffering in Myanmar, Gaza, Haiti and beyond to economic struggles and unjust immigration enforcement closer to home. "Everything is out of sorts, with many of us asking, how do we respond in the face of overwhelming odds when the power and violence of the federal government is acting so brutally, without regard for human rights and dignity, and as important, how do we keep our spirits resonating with positive energy? How do we muster the faith to remain in the struggle?" Hawkins asked. Read the full article at this QRCode.
