FBB1-5-4-06 Christian Communion – Baptized into the Body of Christ

An individual may only be made free from sin and death through obedience to water baptism in Jesus' name. This is where the blood that was shed at Christ's death, and His burial and resurrection are applied to that soul. For a person to be a co-participant and abide with Christ, they must have first put Him on (Galatians 3:27).

Communion is also an experience in the remembrance of the body and blood of Christ and what He did for mankind in the remission of their sins. It is deeply personal as well as collective when referring to the entire church of believers over the many years since Christ walked on the earth. When the Early Church broke bread among themselves, they were remembering and celebrating that they were made partakers of the body of Christ. This Communion remembrance is only for those that are within the Body of Christ.

Romans 6:3-11 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: 6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. 7 For he that is dead is freed from sin. 8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: 9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. 10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. 11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 10:16-17 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

Galatians 3:27-29 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

2 Corinthians 13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

A person that is not yet baptized, should not be shunned from partaking of Communion. After all, the goal of a Christian should be to encourage souls unto the
