Acts 2:1-13

²¹When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. ²²And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. ²³Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. ²⁴And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. ²⁵And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. ²⁶And when this sound occurred, the multitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language. ²⁷Then they were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak Galileans?" ²⁸And how is it that we hear, each in our own language in which we were born? ²⁹Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ³⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ³¹Cretans and Arabs—we hear them speaking in our own tongues the wonderful works of God." ³²So they were all amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "Whatever could this mean?" ³³Others mocking said, "They are full of new wine."
