

The Goodness of the Valley

---

Psalm 23:4

Psalm 23:4 (NLT)

<sup>4</sup> Even when I walk through the darkest valley
I will not be afraid, for you are close beside me.
Your rod and your staff
protect and comfort me

Matthew 4:1 (NLT)

Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted there by the devil.

The Holy Spirit knows our hearts and how we are going to react, we are the ones that don't know our own heart. We need to see our hearts and where our faith lies

The Valley is the revealer of men's hearts

“Love is something more stern and splendid than mere kindness...when kindness is separated from the other elements of love, it involves a certain fundamental indifference to its object” – CS Lewis, The Problem of Pain

“Since I believe God is love, I conclude that my conception of love
needs correction” –

CS Lewis

David is thanking and praising God for His love and blessings, even in the Valley.

David never blamed God for his valleys, in fact one thing is for certain, David grew in the valleys

“A Divine work of art, something God is making and therefore something with which He will not be satisfied until it has a certain character” –

CS Lewis

“We may wish we were of so little account to God that He left us alone to follow our natural impulses. That He would give over trying to train us into something so unlike our natural selves, but once again, we are asking not for more love, but for less” - CS Lewis

“Love may forgive all infirmities and love still in spite of them, but love cannot cease to will their removal” –
CS Lewis

The Valley is the place of growth, where sin and self are chipped away

We can see the valley as evil, but God sees it as useful

Hebrews 12:5-11 (NLT)

<sup>5</sup> And have you forgotten the encouraging words God spoke to you as his children? He said, “My child, don’t make light of the LORD’s discipline, and don’t give up when he corrects you.

<sup>6</sup> For the LORD disciplines those he loves,
and he punishes each one he accepts as his child.”

<sup>7</sup> As you endure this divine discipline, remember that God is treating you as his own children.
Who ever heard of a child who is never disciplined by its father?

<sup>8</sup> If God doesn't discipline you as he does all of his children, it means that you are illegitimate and are not really his children at all. <sup>9</sup> Since we respected our earthly fathers who disciplined us, shouldn't we submit even more to the discipline of the Father of our spirits, and live forever?

<sup>10</sup> For our earthly fathers disciplined us for a few years, doing the best they knew how. But God's discipline is always good for us, so that we might share in his holiness. <sup>11</sup> No discipline is enjoyable while it is happening—it's painful! But afterward there will be a peaceful harvest of right living for those who are trained in this way.

James 1:2-4 (NLT)

<sup>2</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, when troubles of any kind come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy. <sup>3</sup> For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow. <sup>4</sup> So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.

There can be more power and blessings down in the valley than on the mountain top.

The mountain top is just the culmination of the power and blessings found in the valley

This is probably the toughest area of faith for a Christian to learn: God is there.

He is literally right there with you

It is in the valley that our faith can either be eroded or strengthened.

When we can believe that God is there, then we will believe He will actually take care of us in those moments in the valley

Psalm 125:2 - <sup>2</sup> Just as the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the Lord surrounds his people, both now and forever.

Zechariah 2:5 - <sup>5</sup> Then I, myself, will be a protective wall of fire around Jerusalem, says the Lord. And I will be the glory inside the city!”

The staff is about direction and correction.

We need the nudge sometimes even in the nice paths

The staff was to help make sure the sheep
and the shepherd
stayed close together

The rod isn't for the sheep;
here it is not an instrument of discipline but of death.

You mess with the sheep, you have to deal with the Shepherd

The sheep and David are at rest because they know the Shepherd not only had their back, but their front, sides, top, bottom, God's got every direction covered

Exodus 14:14 - <sup>14</sup> The Lord himself will fight for you. Just stay calm.”

2 Chronicles 32:8 - <sup>8</sup> He may have a great army, but they are merely men. We have the Lord our God to help us and to fight our battles for us!” Hezekiah’s words greatly encouraged the people.

There will never be a reason to fear with God by your side.

The safest place you will ever be is in the center of God's will
