You're Grounded!

Full of fear, the women bowed down to the ground, as the men said to them, "Why are you looking among the dead for one who is alive?" (Luke 24:5)

I looked at Luke's Easter story from a new-for-me angle this year. I gained an appreciation for the reaction of the women in the tomb upon seeing the two men in bright shining clothes. They bowed to the ground as they heard from the messengers, "He is not here. He has been raised. Remember what he said to you while he was in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, be crucified, and three days later rise to life.'" (Luke 24:6-7)

Fear in Scripture is often more related to reverence or awe than fright. The women moved closer to the earth to receive the message that Christ was raised from the dead. With them, we feel humbled in the divine presence (of messengers and messages) and move closer to the earth with reverence. They were overwhelmed in that instant and I wonder if it was a spontaneous reaction with their bodies that allowed them to stay in the present moment and hear what came next.

In a way, they were grounded by divine glory represented by the two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning. It's like bowing to the ground changed their orientation from expecting to anoint Jesus' dead body to being summoned to remember, return, and report the news of the Resurrection. This is being grounded in a positive way.

We also use grounded in a negative way. It can be a kind of punishment, you're grounded! You can't go anywhere. You're deprived of privileges. You lose something when you're grounded this way.

Thankfully, the women were grounded in a way that allowed them to rise and respond with the power and proclamation of the Resurrection.

Being grounded by God's glory is affirmed by Paul in word and action in these eloquent ways:

- I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope he has given to those he called--his holy people who are his rich and glorious inheritance (Ephesians 1:18).
- When I think of all this, I fall to my knees and pray to the Father, the Creator of everything in heaven and on earth. I pray that from his glorious, unlimited resources he will empower you with inner strength through his Spirit. Then Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him. Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong (Ephesians 3:14-17).

May we remember the power of physical expressions of reverence and awe in the presence of God's glory. May we be positively grounded in God's love so we may rise with power to remember, return, and report the news of the Resurrection in our day and time.

Peace, Pastor Jeff

Happy Spring, Church Family!

We Stephen Leaders have been blessed to be part of the Lenten Services. We have had opportunities to pray with people as we imposed ashes on Ash Wednesday and to share Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday. They were a new type of service which was very inspirational and individual, much like Stephen Ministry. A couple of folks have expressed interest in becoming Stephen Ministers, taking the 50 hour class. We would love to begin a class but would like to have at least a couple more people. Is God asking you to become part of this wonderful, confidential, individual Christian ministry? Please let me, Pastor Jeff, Tammy Youmans, or Virginia Curtis know if you are interested!

Blessings,

Seminar: Leading in the Local Church as a Disciple and as a Servant

Calling all church leaders in the Central Bay District,

If you are a local church Lay Leader, Lay Representative to the MI UMC Annual Conference, a committee leader or member, if you lead a group in mission or are in ministry, if you are involved as a Lay Servant or Lay Speaker, or if you just want to grow your skills as a leader, THIS EVENT IS FOR YOU!!

Come and explore your gifts as a leader and grow your skills to better serve your church. Expand your leadership skills, gain abilities and strategies for leading missions and ministries in your local church, and explore leadership from a Christ-centered perspective.

Saturday, May 17      9:00 AM- 11:30 AM
Edmore Faith UMC, 833 S 1st St, Edmore, MI 48829

Cost: There is no cost to participate in the seminar. The Central Bay District is covering the cost of materials, and other items are being donated.

Registration: Although there is no cost for registration for this event, we do need those interested in attending to pre-register so that we are able to prepare materials accordingly.

- Alternate registration: Call 989-588-2931 and leave your name, your phone number, your email address, your church name, and the date, time, and location of the seminar you wish to attend.

Philippians 2:3-4 – Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

From Pastor Mark Shaw of Calvary Baptist Church:

We have a large garden area we have used as a Community Garden Space for many years. There are open plots available. Would anyone in your church have interest in a whole plot or even a portion to have a place to grow some veggies or flowers? The charge is $10 per year; there are a few rules we ask people to observe for the courtesy and benefit of all the gardeners.

Garden Location: North end of Calvary's property at 12501 Montcalm Rd, Greenville.

The Native American Ministries offering bolsters the work of Native American ministries in annual conferences throughout the United States. These ministries exist in rural and urban settings, including reservation and other community ministries. The Native American Ministries offering also provides scholarships for Native Americans studying at United Methodist schools of theology and empowers congregations to find culturally appropriate ways to minister to their communities through Christ's love.

Rear Congregation of the First United Methodist Church and Pastor Jeff,

I want to thank each of you for everything you all did for John Lee.

Pastor Jeff you were so wonderful to John. I will always be grateful for you & your church. You all were so sincere in loving John!

The service and luncheon was so beautiful. I am so glad that John rest there at the church.

God Bless you all,

Love Jane Wolf
