Moving Closer to God and One Another

"God has revealed these things to us through the Spirit. The Spirit searches everything, including the depths of God...We haven't received the world's spirit but God's Spirit so that we can know the things given to us by God." (1 Corinthians 2:10,12)

Today someone may hear the Good News for the very first time. And today someone may hear the Good News for the very last time.

We are coming through trying times in our congregation and, as Pastor Jane Duffey preached earlier in August, we are "braving a new wilderness" in the Church.

I believe that when we gather for worship or fellowship or discernment about disaffiliation, what's at stake is that we are seeking a spiritual home with feelings and memories and wondering, Can I belong here? Some of us are listening for how God's Word is handled and presented in worship and by the preacher. Some of us may hear a call to repentance and find the room to change that God has been providing for us all along. Some of us may not even be able to say why we are here as we carry great grief and deep questions into this sanctuary.

What we discover time and again is that in this house of prayer, this Body of Christ, we imperfectly hold wisdom and passion, follow Jesus, love our neighbors, and seek God's guidance in the Word and God's presence in the Holy Spirit.

On Sunday, August 27, we took a straw poll after worship about whether to remain in The United Methodist Church or to disaffiliate. After The Way Forward question-and-answer document from the Leadership Board, two Town Hall meetings, a financial report from our Treasurer, and countless scattered conversations, membership inquiries, phone calls, email threads, text messages, and letters through the US mail, 94 votes were cast:

56 (60%) votes to remain United Methodist

38 (40%) votes to Disaffiliate

Per our conditions for the vote, the Disaffiliate choice needed at least 60% for the disaffiliation process to continue. So, we remain a United Methodist Church and the disaffiliation process is done.

We have learned more about the relationship of who we are and who we think we are in this process. In some ways, this is a natural and continuous discovery process. It is a type of ongoing revelation. But our journey of considering staying United Methodist or disaffiliating is filled with soul-searching grief and will continue to unfold in the coming days and weeks and months.

In his book, The Active Life, Parker Palmer writes: "There is the experience we commonly call disillusionment, when a trusted friend lets us down, an institution we had relied on fails us, a vision we had believed in turns out to be a hoax, or—worst of all—when we discover ourselves to be less than we had thought. Many of us try hard to avoid such experiences, and when we are in the midst of them we go through a kind of dying...As our illusions are removed, like barriers on a road, we have a chance to take that road farther toward truth.

God's revealing work through the Spirit will keep us going into a future filled with hope and disillusionment. So we can join the Psalmist in affirming as a Body of Christ: Make your ways known to us, Lord; teach us your paths. Lead us in your truth—teach it to us—because you are the God who saves us. We put our hope in you all day long (Psalm 25:4).

Peace, Pastor Jeff

Leadership Board Recordings

Greenville First UMC
Leadership Board Recordings
July 24, 2023

Members present: Wendy Bates, Julie Brown, Linda Custer, Steve Homich, Cindy Hill, Chuck Hill, Eric Januzzi, Jeff Loding, Chris Nelson, Pastor Jeff Williams, Tammy Youmans
Members absent: John Raven
Guests: Sally Armstrong, Amy Homich, Vicki Nelson and Chris Ritter

The meeting was called to order at 7 p.m. by Chuck Hill and Chuck provided an Opening Prayer.

1. Check in with City Church: Chuck Hill read a note from Pastor Tim Simon. City Church is getting quotes for its new building and may have sold the dome on its property. It has begun a $2.5 million capital campaign for the building.
2. The Recordings of June 26 were approved (Jeff Loding motioned and Wendy Bates supported).
3. Exit interview form: Linda Custer reported that an Exit Interview form was created for church employees. A form for child care center employees is being created.
4. Guests Input: Sally Armstrong said she has spoken to many members of the church and they are wondering why disaffiliation is being discussed. Chuck Hill replied that no decision on disaffiliation has been made. In fact, the decision on whether to disaffiliate will be placed in the hands of the congregation (see 5(a)(ii) below).
5. The Way Forward
  - a. Changes: A new version was presented by Chuck Hill and Pastor Jeff and is attached. The revision contained two significant updates:
    - i. If disaffiliation is approved, Pastor Jeff will seek a new appointment in a different Methodist church effective Jan. 1, 2024. Continuing to serve the congregation after disaffiliation would require a transitional leave of absence, not an official appointment. This would interrupt his years of service toward retirement and practically result in the loss of health care coverage through the Michigan Conference in retirement. He has to serve 10 consecutive years under appointment before retirement in order to qualify for health care from the Conference. A leave would reset his consecutive service years to zero.
    - ii. Pastor Jeff noted that only “professing members” can participate in the disaffiliation vote, tentatively scheduled for Nov. 5. Current church attendees should check with the office to verify their membership. According to ¶215 in the Book of Discipline, “The professing membership of a local United Methodist church shall include all baptized people who have come into membership by profession of faith through appropriate services of the baptismal covenant in the ritual or by transfer from other churches.” Pastor Jeff will hold a membership class (no date was set) for current attendees who need to establish their membership prior to the disaffiliation vote.
  - b. Congregation discussion: The congregation will be invited to Town Halls on Aug. 6 at 10:30 a.m. and Aug. 9 at 6:30 p.m. to find out more about disaffiliation. Videos will be shown discussing the pros and cons. Rev. Rob Renfroe, president of Good News magazine, will present why churches should disaffiliate and Adam Hamilton, author and founding pastor of The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kan., will present why churches should remain in The United Methodist Church. Each meeting will include time for questions. One or two weeks after the meetings church members will vote in a “straw poll” to give the Board insight as to whether a disaffiliation vote is needed (Disaffiliation requires a two-thirds majority vote).

6. Leadership committees: Pastor Jeff provided a draft document showing potential members for the following committees: Education, Finance, Missions, Staff-Parish, Trustees and Worship. He will provide an update at the August meeting.
7. Financial Update: Eric Januzelli discussed the impact of COVID from 2020 to 2022, year-to-date performance, and cost for potential disaffiliation.
  - a. Years 2020 to 2022: The Board reviewed an analysis showing the Christian Child Care Center (CCCC) received $468,503 in COVID-related grants and paid $66,475 in COVID-related expenses for a net benefit of $402,028. FUMC and CCCC together received $144,040 in Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) grants, making the church's total financial benefit from COVID $546,068.
  - b. Jan. 1 to June 30, 2023: Expenses exceeded revenues by $45,031, for a cash loss of $7,505 per month. This does not include principal paid on the mortgage or annual interest (see below). The church reduced its mortgage balance by almost $60,000, from $616,920 on Jan. 1 to $557,045 on June 30. Because of the church's principal payments and interest income, net worth actually increased $8,746.
  - c. Interest income: The church has $200,000 in a certificate of deposit maturing December 2023 and about $75,000 in a money market fund. With rates close to 5 percent, the two investments are projected to generate about $13,000 in annual interest.
  - d. 2023 Revenues: Year to date, FUMC Givings were $121,627, up 0.6 percent compared to the same time period last year. CCCC tuition was $140,661, up 16 percent. Due to the lack of COVID grants, the category Other Income fell from $333,037 to $40,325.
  - e. Payment for Disaffiliation: Disaffiliation would cost about $313,000. The Michigan Conference does not provide loans. The cost to borrow from a local bank would be approximately the Prime Rate (currently 8.25 percent) plus 1.5 percent, for a total of 9.75 percent. If the church borrowed at the end of the year, the church's debt would increase about 63 percent to $813,000 (mortgage balance is expected to be $500,000 by 12/31/23). On a 10-year amortization schedule, the disaffiliation debt would cost $4,093/month, or $49,117/year. Combined with the church's yearly mortgage cost of $124,513, the church's annual debt service would be $173,630 - 72 percent of the church's 2023 projected giving of $240,000.
8. SubSplash: Pastor Jeff, Linda Custer and Julie Brown updated the Board on the benefits of using SubSplash. Julie said the software was easy to use for the Tech Team. Linda noted that FUMC can now provide funeral recordings for families. Pastor Jeff provided data showing that since inception the church app has been launched 1,836 times and there have been 11,939 "app impressions" (impressions are clicks of the app, not different individuals). As a Sunday example, 31 people viewed Pastor Eric's July 16 service. Julie noted that a person has to watch the service for at least three minutes to be counted.
9. Guest input: Amy Homich said church members will want to know a lot more information about how disaffiliation will affect the church's finances and suggested that the Board create detailed projections if the church does or does not disaffiliate. Sally Armstrong asked how church members will know about other Methodist options, such as the Global Methodist Church. Chuck Hill said finances and non-United Methodist Church options would be discussed in the disaffiliation presentations.
10. The Board's next meeting will be Aug. 28 at 7 p.m.

Wendy Bates provided a closing prayer and the meeting was adjourned at 9:07 p.m. Submitted by Eric Januzelli

Stephen Ministry

Happy Fall, Church Family!

September marks the return of our monthly meetings, the first Wednesday of each month. We are studying and discussing a very interesting topic, The Miracles of Jesus, led by Tammy. We will meet on Wednesday, September 6 at 6:30 in the Conference Room. Stephen Ministers, please join us!

One of the most important things we are taught to do in Stephen Ministry Training is how to really listen when someone is speaking with you. We should not be thinking about how we feel or how to respond to that person, just listen to the person and to be open to what God wants you to share. Sometimes you just let them know you care while they figure out how to get through their situation.

If you feel called to this wonderful, individual, confidential ministry, we would love to talk with you. Please contact Pastor Jeff, Tammy Youmans, Virginia Curtis, or me!

Blessings,
Barb Perry
Stephen Leader

World Communion Sunday

October 1

Holy Communion joins us in Christian unity. This sacrament invites us to focus on the holiness of communion with God and one another. On World Communion Sunday - United Methodists, in conjunction with other denominations and believers worldwide, participate in communion to recognize our unity in Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. This universal and inclusive connection is the foundation of the special offering for World Communion Sunday.

Your donations support racial and ethnic students in achieving their educational goals and transforming communities. In 2021, World Communion Sunday offerings awarded 242 scholarships and grants. Your generosity continues to provide scholarships, grants, mentoring and training for leadership development. The needs exceed what we can fund, and your gifts provide further growth and success.

Meals for Those in Crisis

God has been whispering in my ear and I've finally decided to take action. There are so many areas within our church to become involved in. I am about to add another one. Organizing a meal service for those in need. We have many people who are in crises and need a helping hand.

What do we do? All of us are capable of helping but organization is the key. It might happen a lot or possibly only occasionally. We could have a variety of ways to do this. You do not need to be a gourmet cook. Often times when we are in the middle of a crises we are unable to fix food for ourselves and our loved ones.

We will have to meet to help with clear understanding of how this will work. This isn't a brand new idea as I remember when we used to help each other in this way. Somewhere along the way, we have lost that. I believe that it is time to start this again. Hopefully some of you will feel that way also.

Please see me at church, or sign up on the sheet of paper on the table after church. Hopefully with your help this will become something that can become a part of our church again. Continue to pray about this and let's help make this happen.

Thank you for your help!
