THE ROYAL

FAMILY

יהודים Yahudym

Yahuah,

Our prayers of self will are spells even when we word them to sound like they could be Your will. I repent for praying my self will or for anything I've spoken out that doesn't line up with Your perfect will. I desire to have Your perfect will as my own, I repent for damaging choices, and ask You to witness to my Ruach, with Your Ruach when I attempt to take it back. Don't let me have it back Father.

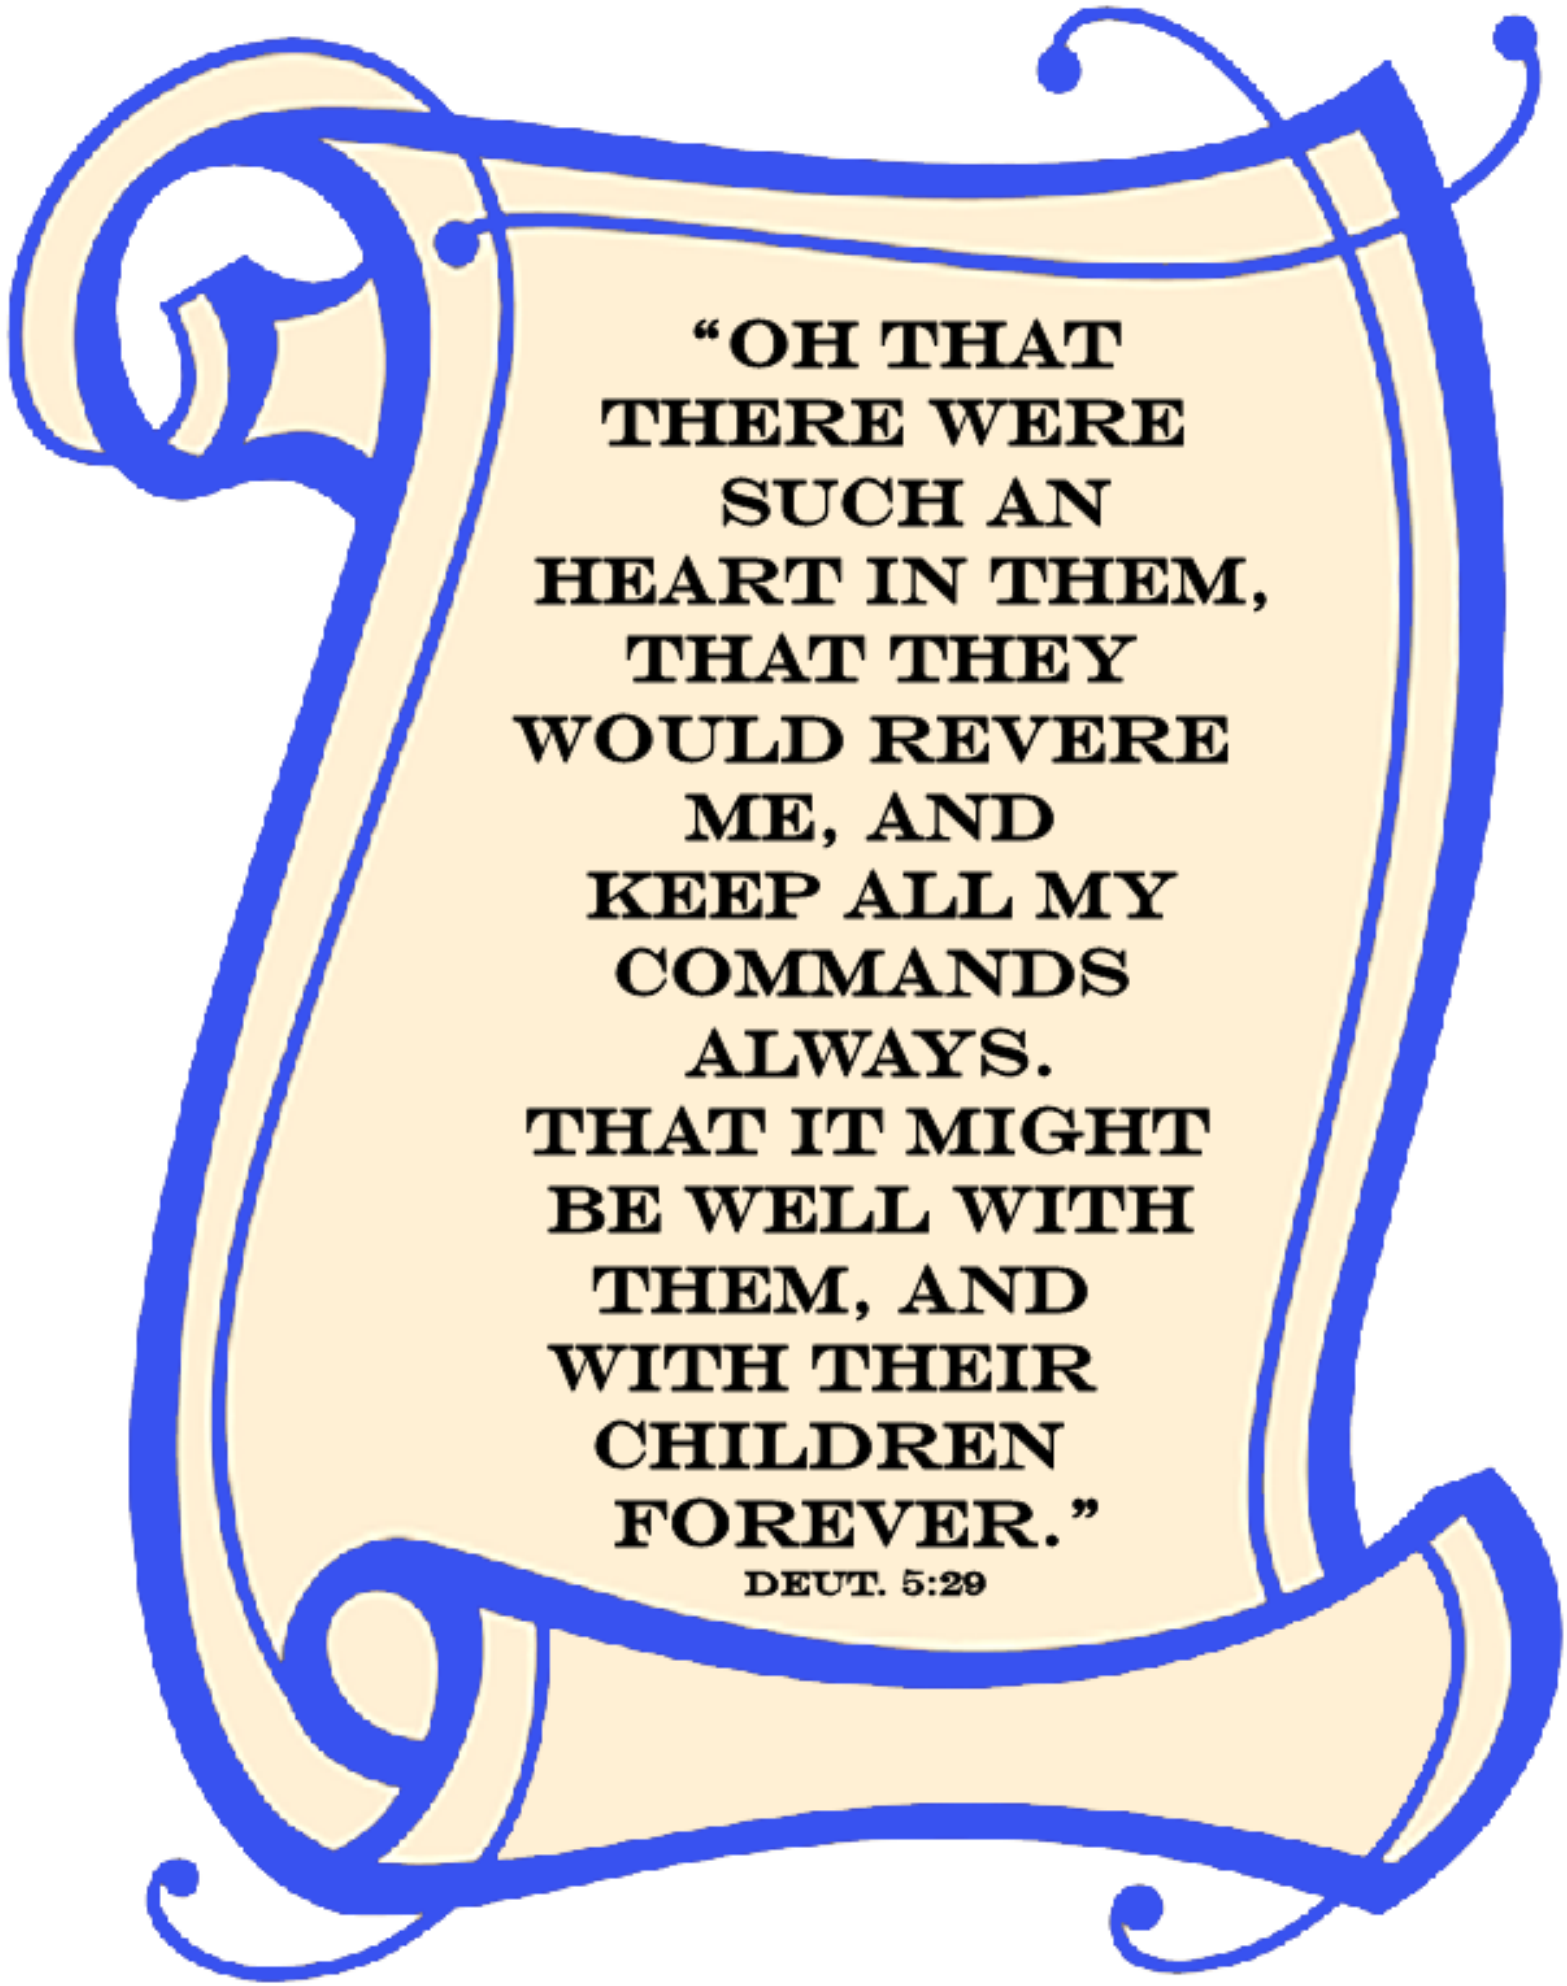

I loose and cancel every spell, prayer, judgment, slander, cursing, or idle word, chanted or spoken, loosed or bound over any situation, anyplace in the world, no matter the intent, in or for any emergency, circumstance, sickness, injury, traumatic event, spoken on others behalf, in any group, over or by me or about You my Yahuah ALUaH, and I loose it everywhere world wide.

I drop those spoken energies to the ground and render them all ineffective and, void and of no worth. It's hard to say goodbye to people who lose their lives, or watch them lose belongings, suffer in pain and in illness, lose land, family, friends, or peace even while standing in Your perfect will, saved or not yet saved, but for us all, and those mourning, I pray Your perfect will.

Your provision is sufficient, in all ways, always. Your will is higher in frequency, understanding, and in all ways higher than mine, and it is perfect. You have knitted together those desiring only Your will and in agreement with this prayer to You.

Praise Your Precious Name Yahuah ALUaH. I would and I will stand alone with You in Ruach, soul and physically alone or with those in agreement no matter what. I love You and trust You with my whole heart and soul. I pray this in Your Precious Sons Name Yahusha HaM-ashiach. Let this be so. Amein

MANNA BITES! || WOMEN OF VALOR

Proverbs 31:10

“Who can find a virtuous woman?

For her price is far above rubies”.

Proverbs 31 is often lauded as the ideal Biblical wife and mother yet

simultaneously it also provides the imagery of the Bride of Messiah as a whole! Is it just poetic imagery or is there something more?

In the Hebrew language, the phrase woman of valor

is ‘Eshet Chayil’ אִשֶּׁת חַיִּל and holds much more meaning than meets the eye!

The Hebrew term for valor is Chayil חַיִּל meaning strength, might or efficiency. Yet it comes from the root chuwl חוּל which means to twirl, twist, turn-around,

or to dance in a circle! With the circular connotation

of one going round it directly connects to the

cyclical nature of the calendar of Yahweh

MANNA BITES! || WOMEN OF VALOR

Could it be that this woman of valor – a picture of the Bride of Messiah is identified as the one who joins Him at the set times (His Feasts/Mo'edim) and joins Him the circular dance that we see pictured as the sun makes it circuit? The focus of the Bridegroom is on her alone! From the moment of Creation, she is the one intended to be His mirror, a reflection of the power and authority found in His Name. The one designed to be his ezer k'negdo – His Helpmeet. Yet she must choose to appear and join the dance of the circuit. The circuit she walks with Him declares the words of her Ketubah, her wedding covenant! Written in the stellar heavens is the redemption plan of Yahweh. It prophesies her captivity, yet coming restoration and redemption by the one who is willing to pay the price for her! And this message is declared at every mo'edim _ Feast!

Restoration Series Pt. 4

When looking at the state of the world today, we are faced with uncertainty and changes that seem to cause quite a bit of upheaval, from economic decline, natural disasters, animosity among nations, and drastic political shifts. Many search for answers that will provide hope and a promise of a brighter future. Yet those answers are never found within the world or from man! Psalms chapter 39 verse 7 tells us – “And now, Lord Adonai, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.” From Genesis to Revelation, the Scriptures make it clear that we have a great hope, a hope that promises the restoration of the people of Yahweh that in turn as well restores all of creation. Yet our hope and restoration are always intricately connected to the restoration of the character and authority of Yahweh! In fact, it’s when we are at our lowest, when the cares of this world, loss, and the pressures of life seem to have knocked the wind out of us, when we seem to have lost sight of the one who directs our steps, that in that moment and place, the promise of restoration and hope is truly understood!

When feeling the furthest from the presence of the Creator, King David cried out in Psalms 51:12, “Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.” This psalm was written on the heels of King David hearing the consequences of his own choices and sins as he had strayed from the path of righteousness which would ultimately result in devastating personal loss.

From this low place, he cries out for a restoration of his joy!

Did you know that there is a difference between happiness and joy? Happiness is defined as an emotion that is temporary and short-lived, fleeting as it is based on one's circumstances. Happiness is only present when everything is going great, and no pressures or cares hinder my emotions. David does not ask for happiness, or for the trials to be removed as he understands his own choices have led him here, he instead boldly asks for the restoration of the joy of his salvation!

You see the principle of joy is long-lasting, going beyond mere emotions, and is not based on one's circumstances as it comes from within! True joy is experienced when one knows that adversity may come, storms may blow in, but there is a safe harbor in the midst of the storms that is found by those who understand and walk in joy!

Joy is an overriding sense of power, enabling one to see beyond the moment, to know that weeping may endure the night...but joy indeed comes in the morning! It's a spiritual principal, a promise of overcoming despite opposition to all those who embrace the Presence of Yah and dare to walk according to His Word! To have one's joy restored infers that our vision and understanding is reset. Our hope and promise is not based on man, it's not based on what our current circumstances may look like, and it's not based on what may be happening in the world around us. Our hope is in Yahweh! And it is by the restoration of the joy of our salvation that we are able to have our mindsets changed and renewed.

You see, when our joy is restored, it's about restoring the source of our hope by restoring the authority and place of Yahweh in our lives! When I understand that the personal struggles, I may be enduring in this moment are merely stepping stones to bring me closer to the source of my hope, to deepen my faith, and strengthen my walk, and perhaps even to re-align my steps, I have now produced the fruit of the spirit called joy that cannot be manifested in any other setting and it unleashes the principle of restoration in my life. It's the process of reconciling, renewing, repairing, rebuilding, returning, and restitution!

The Fruit of the Spirit

LOVE

Seeks the highest good of others.

JOY

Gladness that is not based on circumstances.

PEACE

Contentment, unity between people.

PATIENCE

Slow to speak and slow to anger.

KINDNESS

Merciful, sweet, and tender.

GOODNESS

Generous and open hearted.

FAITHFULNESS

Dependable, loyal, and full of trust.

GENTLENESS

Humble, calm, non-threatening.

SELF-CONTROL

Behaving well.

The word salvation used here in Psalms is yesha', it is from this same root that stems the name of the manifestation of our salvation, the Messiah Yahshua! Yesha' infers to be unrestricted and thus to be free! It is deliverance in the sense of a movement from distress to safety, from a place of restriction and paralysis to a spacious place, and generally must come from an outside source other than the one that's being oppressed! In other words, much like David understood, we cannot save ourselves, our hope does not come from man or our own abilities, I can't fix what is broken, but I can cry out to the one who is able - our hope is in Yahweh! And as we cry out for the restoration of the joy of His salvation, Yahshua, we acknowledge that He alone is able to deliver. We restore His authority and place in our lives and in turn we find rest and yes, even joy regardless of our circumstances.

Statement of Commitment

"My face is set, my gait is fast, my goal is salvation,
my road is narrow, my way rough, my companions few,
my Guide reliable, my mission clear.

I cannot be bought, compromised, detoured,
lured away, turned back, deluded, or delayed.

I will not flinch in the face of sacrifice, hesitate in the presence of the adversary, negotiate at the table of the enemy, ponder at the pool of popularity or meander in the maze of mediocracy.

I won't give up, shut up or let up until I have stayed up, stored up, prayed up and preached up for the cause of Messiah.

I am a disciple of Yahusha. I must go 'til He comes, give 'till I drop, preach all I know and work 'til He stops me."
