Defeating 7 Deadly Sins

Think Lent. Traditionally, the season of Lent is a time of special devotion, self-denial, and humble repentance born of a faithful heart that dwells confidently on Christ's Word and draws from it life and hope. During Lent, many people put forth greater efforts in their spiritual disciplines to draw closer to Christ in their faith and character. Some give up certain earthly comforts or strive against certain sins to help them remember what Christ gave up for our salvation. This year for Lent, I encourage you to put forth extra effort to defeat seven different sins that have ruined the lives of many. Numerous people have fallen into the traps of these sins and become prisoners to their bonds.

Historically, the Catholic Church called these "the Seven Deadly Sins." From a Lutheran (Protestant) perspective, all sins are deadly. Any and all of our sins break fellowship with the Holy and Almighty God. Before the Lord, the variety of our sins have no hierarchy of "badness." They are all rebellions against Him. In this way, the seven deadly sins (pride, envy, greed, wrath, sloth, gluttony, and lust) are seen less as distinct categories of severity but as more useful descriptions of how sin manifests itself in our human lives. Early Lutheran theologians such as Martin Chemnitz urged pastors to teach and warn their people of these specific sins, encouraging believers to actively restrain against their tendencies and not succumb to their grip.

So how do we defeat these sins? On our own and by the sheer force of our human will and determination, we can't. But God can – and, by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit – we can. The way of the Christian is daily dying and rising with repentance and faith in Christ.

Sin is real. Sin is serious. Sin is deadly. Sin is not something we can fix on our own. It continually throws us off, trips us up, traps us, and holds on to us. "But God demonstrates His own love for us in this, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Rom. 5:8) This is Good News! God rescues us from these sins and, even more, He gives us His Spirit to have power over these sins in our lives. "The Law of the Spirit of Life sets us free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death." (Rom 8:2)

With faith in Christ Jesus, our sinful nature is crucified and a new person rises within us, empowered by God's Spirit to live for God and follow in His ways. (see Rom. 6:6 and Gal. 2:20) While in these mortal bodies, we will continue to sin. (see Rom. 7) But God's Spirit helps us overcome sins in daily life and sin less, walking in the ways God intends for us. (see Rom. 8) In the Resurrection, we will receive immortal bodies and be totally free from our sinful natures. For now, we live in daily repentance, remembering our Baptisms to drown the old Adam in us and live the new life God intends for us. In Christ, we can do this. We can enjoy successes in defeating sins. Thank You, Jesus! This is our challenge for Lent 2026, defeating seven deadly sins.

Seven Deadly Sins (from a traditional list, viewed through a Lutheran lens):

Feb. 22 Pride (superbia): The ultimate sin; trusting in self, not God.

Mar. 1 Envy (invidia): Resentment of another's good fortune.

Mar. 8 Greed (avaritia): Excessive desire for material wealth, making idols of earthly things.

Mar. 15 Wrath (ira): Uncontrolled anger, leading to violence or destruction.

Mar. 22 Gluttony (gula): Excessive indulgence in food or drink, using things for destruction rather than enjoyment. Lust (luxuria): Uncontrolled sexual desire, distorting God's gift of sexuality.

Mar. 29 Sloth (acedia): Spiritual laziness or apathy towards God and His gifts, distinct from mere physical laziness.

As Lutheran Christians, we use this list to understand the depths of human sinfulness, rejoice in Christ's redeeming sacrifice, and focus on God's grace and the power of His Spirit within us to avoid the disastrous pitfalls of these perilous sins in our lives.

Personal Mission Statements

What is a Personal Mission Statement? A Personal Mission Statement is a short, memorable, and easy to recall sentence that helps provide direction, guidance, and purpose in all areas of life. Personal mission statements help answer the question: Do my actions honor God as the unique person He made me to be? Personal mission statements help us figure out to what things we should say YES! And, by the way, they also help us figure out to what things we might need to say NO!

Simply put: Personal mission statements are unique reflections of who God has made us to be. They put God's purposes into words that we can carry with us.

I've had my own Personal Mission Statement for a few months now. In good times and bad, when making big decisions or small decisions, whether I have clarity or when I'm lost, my Personal Mission Statement has been a guide that helps me seek God's will day to day. It is a foundation for my prayer life, a help when I'm struggling to find the right words.

My Personal Mission Statement has helped me embrace ministry each day with the God-given talents and passions He's uniquely created within me. Thus fortified, I've gotten to meet some amazing people, each of them with their own unique personalities, talents, and stories to tell. Our wonderful interactions have all been to God's glory!

We will be starting up our next round of Personal Mission Statement groups in February. I hope you can join us! God has uniquely created you with all your gifts, talents, and passions! He's also surrounded you with some pretty remarkable people!

These groups are opportunities to be deeply rooted together while also appreciating the unique mission God has set before each one of us. It's our stock, and your mission! Groups start up in March! We hope you can join us!

Blessings, Pr. Steve

Women's Ministry

Mark your calendars for the weekend of February 7th and 8th for our annual Bake Sale. All items will be available in Trinity Hall following each of the services. The sale will have a nice variety of baked goods including plenty of chocolate items, all made by our own ladies. There will surely be something for everyone to enjoy, and this will be Super Bowl weekend with all items being especially great for any "game watching" events. As always, all proceeds go to the continued support of our various mission projects including our seminary student.

Just in time for the Big Game and Valentine's Day!

All proceeds allow our Women's Ministry to support mission projects solely supported by our ministry.

Thank you to our ladies' quilting group for the beautiful quilts we all had the privilege of seeing during Lutheran World Relief (LWR) Weekend. They work hard throughout the year making these so they can be sent along with those of other churches to places throughout the world to be used as either sleeping mats or warm covers, depending on their need. The group appreciates the congregation's support of this effort in various ways. If you are interested in being a part of this group, they meet every Thursday morning in the Ladies Center and can always use helping hands.

Please watch the Blue Pages for information regarding the LWML Zone Rally on March 7 at Our Savior Lutheran Church, Zephyrhills, FL with a group from Grace planning to attend. We welcome all ladies of Grace to join us.

MUSIC NOTES

LSB 544 O Love, How Deep

1 O love, how deep, how broad,
how high,
Beyond all thought and fantasy,
That God, the Son of God, should take
Our mortal form for mortals' sake!

2 He sent no angel to our race,
Of higher or of lower place,
But wore the robe of human frame,
And to this world Himself He came.

3 For us baptized, for us He bore
His holy fast and hungered sore;
For us temptation sharp He knew;
For us the tempter overthrew.

4 For us He prayed; for us He taught;
For us His daily works He wrought,
By words and signs and actions thus
Still seeking not Himself but us.

5 For us by wickedness betrayed,
For us, in crown of thorns arrayed,
He bore the shameful cross
and death;
For us He gave His dying breath.

6 For us He rose from death again;
For us He went on high to reign;
For us He sent His Spirit here
To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.

7 All glory to our Lord and God
For love so deep, so high, so broad;
The Trinity whom we adore
Forever and forevermore.

This hymn continuously uses the phrase “for us” and describes what the Son of God came to do: To take on human flesh (John 1:14); be baptized (Matt. 3:13-17); bear temptation (Matt. 4:1-11); do miracles (found throughout the Gospels); be betrayed (Matt. 26:49-50); bear the crown of thorns (Matt. 27:29); bear the cross and die (Matt. 27:32-56); rise again from the dead (Matt. 28:1-10); ascend to heaven (Acts 1:6-11); and send the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:1-4). In love, God sent His Son, Jesus, to save us from sin, death, and the power of the devil. For this we make a joyful noise to the Lord!

Preschool and Elementary

Grace Lutheran Preschool and Elementary are off to a wonderful start as we begin 2026! Students enjoyed learning about Epiphany and the Three Kings, reflecting on how Jesus is revealed to the world. We were also excited to celebrate National Lutheran Schools Week and Grandparents Day, where students had the special opportunity to spend valuable time with loved ones. Together, we celebrated learning, faith, and how Christ benefits us each day here at our Lutheran school.

Middle School

December was a busy and exciting month for our middle school, highlighted by the Student Council-led Christmas Extravaganza during which students generously raised $600 for Kidspack, along with spring theatre auditions, competitive basketball games, and end-of-semester celebrations. January marked a strong start to the new semester, with rehearsals underway for the spring production of The Jungle Book, continued basketball competition, and anticipation building for upcoming events such as National Lutheran Schools Week, the Scholastic Book Fair, and Grandparents' Day. As Semester 2 begins, middle school students are eagerly looking ahead to meaningful learning experiences, including the 8th grade trip to Washington, D.C., and the 7th grade trip to the Florida Keys.

Exciting News! The Book Fair was open January 21-28! Proceeds from the fair are used to purchase new books for
