Dear Friend,

Are your kids and grandkids already bored to tears by the very same summer vacation that they were recently counting down towards, by the day? :-)

Fret not! WFRN, Your Friend of the Family, has some ideas for you:

1. Volunteer with your tribe at WFRN.com's new Volunteer Hub! :-)
You'll find members of WFRN's ministry family that you hear about on Your Friend. There are descriptions of what opportunities await you at each ministry, so that you and your kiddos will know what to expect with each one of these wonderful organizations.
2. Memorize the transformative, life-giving words of our Lord! :-) Here's a great resource, with oodles of fun ideas, from Focus On The Family: 25 Bible Verses for Kids to Memorize in Fun Ways.
3. Have a Bible Memory Dance Party - a really fun idea, from hiddeninmyheartbible.com (a great resource!) -- Play Bible memory songs as you dance around the house, apartment, park or yard. You can turn this into a Bible Freeze Dance game where you pause the music at any given moment, and everyone has to freeze in their current position. See who can hold their pose the longest! :-)

Yes, it's a long summer - but it doesn't have to be a boring one! :-)

Thank you for being part of the WFRN Family - and for trusting WFRN with your family, all summer long.

Doug

Once Upon An Apron

By Amy Watson

With graduation and wedding season upon us, you might find yourself slipping an apron over your head to do some heavy duty party planning. My grandmother always wore an apron when she did household chores or baked in the kitchen....
