I WANT TO KNOW CHRIST
AND THE POWER OF HIS RESURRECTION
AND THE FELLOWSHIP OF SHARING
IN HIS SUFFERINGS,

BECOMING LIKE HIM IN HIS DEATH,
AND SO, SOMEHOW, TO ATTAIN TO THE RESURRECTION FROM THE DEAD.

Get Over Wanting to be Needed

On this view (to seek first His Kingdom) the thing has happened: the new step has been taken and is being taken. Already the new men are dotted here and there all over the earth. Some, as I have admitted, are still hardly recognized. Every now and then one meets them. Their very voices and faces are different from ours: stronger, quieter, happier, more radiant. They begin where most of us leave off. They are, I say, recognizable; but you must know what to look for. They will not be very like the idea of 'religious people' which you have formed from your general reading. They do not draw attention to themselves. You tend to think that you are being kind to them when they are really being kind to you. They love you more than other men do, but they need you less. (We must get over wanting to be needed: in some goodish people, especially women, that is the hardest of all temptations to resist.) They will usually seem to have a lot of time: you will wonder where it comes from. When you have recognized one of them, you will recognize the next one much more easily. And I strongly suspect that they recognize one another immediately and infallibly, across every barrier of color, sex, class, age and even of creeds. In that way, to become holy is rather like joining a secret society. To put it at the very lowest, it must be fun...

...At the beginning I said there were Personalities of God. I will go further now. There are no real personalities anywhere else. Until you have given up yourself to Him you will not have a real self. Sameness is to be found most among the most 'natural' men, not among those who surrender to Christ. How monotonously alike all the great tyrants and conquerors have been: how gloriously different are the saints.
