Revisions for May Boulevard Church on January 28 RHCA Meeting Agenda

As a result of discussions at the December meeting of the Lee District Land Use Advisory Committee, the issue of the proposed May Boulevard church will be back on the RHCA agenda for its January 28 meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the community room of the John Marshall Library. The applicant has proposed some new conditions in an effort to gain the support of both RHCA and the Land Use Advisory Committee. The latter is an ad hoc group made up of representatives of citizen and homeowner associations in Lee District. Its decision is supported by both the Lee District member of the Planning Commission and the Board of Supervisors. As a result, RHCA has been asked by the Land Use Committee to reevaluate its rejection of the proposal based on the new conditions.

The County staff will issue an addendum to its previously published approval of the proposal as a result of the applicant's revised conditions and RHCA's points of opposition raised in a series of meetings over the last few months. Basically, RHCA is opposed to increasing the intensity of the site because it is located in the midst of a quiet residential neighborhood. It should be noted that the current use has been operation for more than three decades. It originally was the site of the Rose Hill Community Center, which operated from the 1950s until the late 1970 before closing because of financial issues.

The applicant has proposed a reduction of seats in the church as well as increased parking on the site. Both the church, existing child care center and school of general education will have a total of 400 worshipers and students, although in separate sessions. Rose Hill Academy operates Monday through Friday from approximately 6:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. The church proposes services on Sundays with smaller activities on Saturday and some week nights. The day care caters to elementary school age youngsters who are transported by bus to nearby schools.

The owner of the property plans to reserve a portion of the site in order to build six houses under the R-3 zoning classification recommended in the comprehensive plan. All of Rose Hill is zoned R-3. Should the entire property develop at R-3, both RHCA and the Franconia Museum are on record as supporting the retention of the existing silos on the property as living examples of Franconia's agricultural history. The Rose Hill property has a rich history and operated as a farm from the mid-1700s to the 1950s. Silos were invented in the early 1900s and the ones at Rose Hill have been there since the early 1940s.

Safety First in Rose Hill

Our fame as a safe community has been recognized nationally. A California-based Internet Blog says Rose Hill is one of the 10 best areas in which to live in Virginia. Even more important, Rose Hill came in first in the category of public safety. The blog provides information to the real estate industry and potential buyers. Among Fairfax County areas overall, Tysons Corner ranked second, Annandale fourth and Rose Hill ninth. The results were provided recently by the Rose Hill-Kingstowne Patch, our hometown newsletter on the Internet. Our lofty ranking is the product of the Fairfax County Police, our Neighborhood Watch program and other safety conscious neighbors. Rose Hill has a large contingent of citizens who keep watch over their neighborhoods for potential vandalism, thefts and other criminal activity. They and others also watch out for zoning and other violations that detract from our community. Those issues include rundown properties, overcrowding, illegal modifications and additions and the parking of inoperable, unlicensed or large commercial vehicles. Rose Hill is part of a residential parking district that regulates the type and location of vehicles on our public streets and property. Lest we become complacent, police recently report that a shotgun was stolen from a vehicle and there was a car broken into. Both occurred on a quiet residential street in Rose Hill. Also, a car was stolen near the shopping center. Please keep an eye out for suspicious or illegal activity. If you see something, SAY SOMETHING. For criminal activity in progress, call 911. The police non-emergency number is 703-691-2131. For property issues or illegal parking on private property, use this number to report illegal activity such as illegal parking on the street. If you see overcrowding, illegal additions or rundown property, call the Zoning Enforcement office at 703-324-1300. If you are uncomfortable making a report or feel your concerns are not being addressed, call or e-mail any of the RHCA officers.

2013 Holiday Lights Winners

Two addresses have moved up to the Grand Prize category over the recent holiday season. Both are unique in that they feature simple but eye-catching displays. The Grigsbys at 6409 Willowood Lane combined back lighting with large stars with smaller lights to create what the judges referred to as the "Gingerbread House." The Rices at 6431 bathed their house in light to accent holiday wreaths. Both the Grigsbys and the Rices moved up from the Exceptional Display category last year. They join the Kroetches and Rabys at 4700 and 4705 Flower Lane respectively, the Najazadehs at 6404 Telegraph Road, the Fulks at 6410 Cottonwood Drive, the Campbells at 6402 Cottonwood Drive, and the Daileys at 5009 Eastchester Circle in the top-rated category. The Fulks on Cottonwood are the parents at 6410 and their daughter at 6404. The entire list is on page 11. Because of illness, the judges may not have been as vigilant as before, so suggestions that some addresses may have been overlooked should be reported to any of the RHCA officers. In order to make sure that the judging is more comprehensive next year, additional judges would be welcomed. If you can check your street, block or neighborhood and report any potential honorees, we'll be sure to include all those who deserve recognition. Give us a call before New Year's Day 2015 and let us know what category in which you think they deserve mention. Sometimes, the displays are not lighted at the time the overall judges make their rounds, so your help with help ensure no one is missed.

Membership Thanks

RHCA has heard thanks from the Koinonia Foundation, Edison High School All-Night graduation party, the Franconia police station's Citizen's Advisory Committee, the Franconia Museum and the Friends of the John Marshall Library for its support during 2013. Koinonia assists the less fortunate in our area, the Edison group provides a safe atmosphere for its graduates, the CAC provides meals for officers who have to work Christmas and New Year's, the Museum preserves our local history and the Library group supports John Marshall Library. Our contributions are made possible by the generous support of our members. That support also pays for the seasonal plantings at our entrance sign on Rose Hill Drive at Franconia Road. Our thanks go to the Rose Hill Apartments for maintaining the median on Rose Hill Drive and those residents who keep the grass cut between the sidewalk and the road. Members who qualify also receive the annual Rose Hill Beauty signs. All of which is to remind you our 2014 membership drive is underway. Dues are only $10 per year and contributions are encouraged to help offset the cost of printing the Rambler as well as the items mentioned above. The Rambler costs approximately $3,500 per year to print. We usually take in one-third of that amount in advertising revenue, so your extra help is appreciated. We have a small army of volunteers that deliver the Rambler nine times per year. We deliver to all households in Rose Hill to make sure they are aware of community issues and County rules and regulations that help protect our property values. All those who signed up by January 16 are listed on Page 4 and the membership application is available on page 10. Please take a moment to join RHCA and help your neighbors in our ongoing efforts to make Rose Hill a safe and pleasant community in which to live. Also try to join us at our meetings. RHCA gathers nine times a year at 7 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except July, August and December. The meetings usually are held at the John Marshall Library. Check the sign in the median on Rose Hill Drive to confirm the site. If we have your e-mail address, you will receive a communication reminding you of the meeting and agenda information.

Rose Hill Personalities

Little did we know that when Connie Beatty and Joann Thompson represented RHCA at the annual Lee District Association of Civic Organizations banquet at the Hilton Hotel in Springfield early in December they would be featured in a full-page picture on the cover of the Springfield-Kingstown-Franconia Connection newspaper. Connie has lived in Rose Hill since December of 1954. Joanne represents our community on the Franconia police stations Seniors and Law Enforcement Together committee. RHCA is a member of the Lee District Association of Civic Organizations which keeps local organizations informed about County and State information. Unfortunately, we don't have someone to represent us on a regular basic. This is an important link between RHCA, the State and County representatives. The group meets once a month on the third Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Franconia Government Center, 6121 Franconia Road. Give us a call if you are interested.

Rambler Delivery

We are in need of someone to deliver the Rambler on a portion of Bee Street, Rose Hill Drive on the even numbers from Bee Street to Telegraph Road and Sturbridge Place and Lark Lane as well as Rock-A-Bye Road. The total number of deliveries is 34. We also are seeking alternates to cover routes when the regular delivery person is on vacation, ill, etc. We have been fortunate to have the Rambler delivered to every house in Rose Hill nine times a year (there is NO rambler in July and August as well as December). The copies are delivered to the volunteers either late Friday afternoon or early Saturday morning. We ask that the routes be covered either Saturday or Sunday as the meeting is the following Tuesday night. Give Linda or I a call if you can help.

Long-time residents

We are looking for more long-time residents to add to our list on the plaque of Originals on the Rose Hill sign on Rose Hill Drive at the John Marshall Library. If you moved into Rose Hill after 1960 and the house is in the same ownership, give us a call. We have already heard from a few but don't want to leave anyone out. Please give either I or Linda a call. The honor is reserved for those whose house has been in the same family for 50 years or more. Those of you who have made Rose Hill such a great community in which to live deserve to be recognized.

- Carl Sell

Expert Roof Repair/Replacement, Gutters too!

Residential & Commercial: Expert Repairs & Installation of All Types of Roofing at Fair Prices

SIX Common Misconceptions about Roofing and the Roofing Industry:

Misconception #1. You should wait as long as possible to re-roof your home.

No! Your roof takes a beating every day from sun, wind and rain. Your shingles become brittle and crack with age and have a tendency to blow off and fail at an alarming rate with age. This exposes the roof decking (the sub-structure that literally, "keeps you out of the rain") to moisture which slowly deteriorates and rots the wood beneath, leading to leaks and more extensive damage.

Further, the metal flashings around chimney areas and at adjoining exterior walls (or rooflines), the penetration collars (around plumbing and heat stacks) and all other vents become worn and prone to water infiltration.

Next time you're outside, take a close look at your roof (most people don't pay attention to it until there's a problem). How does it look? Is it rough and weathered? Are the shingles "curling" or cracking? Is one section very distinguishable from all other areas? Finally, are you proud of the way your roof helps "show" your home, or are you embarrassed by its appearance?

Remember: By the time you have waited "as long as possible," you have probably waited too long and will end up spending your hard earned money on interior and sub-structure repairs, as well as a much needed roof replacement.

If we don't have your name, have it wrong or misspelled it, please contact one of the officers and we will correct it in the February Rambler. If you think you or one of your neighbors has been left off the list, it may have been because their lights were not on during our judging period. Let us know and we will correct the oversight in the February Rambler.
