Fish Fry, Tuesday, June 26th

National Night Out, Tuesday, August 7th

The Rose Hill Civic Association will sponsor two important events this summer, beginning with the Fish Fry on Tuesday, June 26th in the Nichols' front yard at 6416 Rose Hill Drive. Serving begins at 6 p.m. If you can help set up, fry fish or cook hot dogs, the work will begin at 4p.m. The annual Night Out honoring our First Responders will be held on Tuesday, August 7th, same time, same place.

RHCA will supply the fish, hot dogs for the kids, drinks and all paper products and utensils necessary to enjoy the meal. Those attending are asked to bring a side dish or dessert. RHCA members are free. Others are asked to contribute $10 per family.

Everything will be the same for Night Out except we will serve all beef hot dogs instead of fish. This event is part of a nationwide effort to honor our police, firefighters and other first responders and promote community safety. Kids are especially invited to attend, enjoy the food, meet local police and firefighters and see the equipment up close.

Night Out is our chance to show our local First Responders how much we appreciate their effort to keep us safe. RHCA has a great relationship with the Franconia District Police Station and the Franconia Volunteer Fire Department.

Please show the officers and firefighters how much you appreciate their efforts by showing up on August 7th.

On June 26th, we will pass on any new information available on the proposed development on Rock-A-By Road and the scheduled opening of the refurbished John Marshall Library. RHCA does not meet in July and August. Any new information will be posted on our Facebook Page or web page at myrosehill.com.

We also provide members with updates via e-mail announcements. If you are not a member, we do not have your e-mail, so we cannot contact you. The best way to stay informed about your community is to join RHCA.

Libby Anderson (left) and Linda McMurray (Duer) ride their bikes along the sidewalk on Rose Hill Drive. Libby lived in Hayfield Place and Linda in the house on Rose Hill Drive now owned by Dave and Linda Nichols. Duer recently returned to Rose Hill from her home in California to visit the house and community she moved from in 1958. The photo was taken in front of what is now 6416 Rose Hill Drive. The old farmhouse on Bee Street is behind Duer. See story and more pictures inside this month's Rambler! (Photo provided by Linda McMurray Duer)

Raccoon Attack

Mimi Minarick reports her cat was attacked by a raccoon on the patio at her home, 6518 Telegraph Road on the afternoon of May 29. Mimi was able to chase away the raccoon with the help of wasp spray, but the injured cat ran off. Mimi found her cat two days later in the back yard of a house about a block away on Telegraph Road and took him to the vet. However, the animal was injured too badly and would not recover, according to the vet. The cat was euthanized and Fairfax County Animal Control was notified of the attack. The raccoon is still at large. Residents are warned to keep cats and other small animals close at hand as raccoons and other predators also make Rose Hill their home. Warn children not to approach raccoons as they may have rabies.

New Neighbors on Telegraph Road

The United States Department of State intends to occupy the vacant office building at 6801 Telegraph Road across from Greendale Golf Course. The State Department will use the property to house its high security tenants (Diplomatic Security). The General Services Agency will handle design and construction activities. The proposed renovation will consist of modernizing the interior, creating new office spaces and training laboratories, repairing the existing complex as well as security arrangements and environmental remediation projects. Funding has not yet been approved.

Last year, RHCA asked Congressman Beyer's office for information concerning proposed use of the vacant building. Supervisor McKay's office also asked for the update. On May 28, 2018, the State Department sent a letter recommitting to the project and confirmed justification to use Federal government property for long-term purposes.

The Department of State set a target date of 2022 for finalizing space requirement and completing all related work for occupancy. The design will be coordinated with the Virginia State Preservation Office and is subject to review by the National Capital Park and Planning Commission. No local approval is involved, although it is expected that GSA will coordinate plans with Fairfax County.

Upon receiving the information, Supervisor McKay's office's office immediately notified RHCA, which had repeatedly expressed concerns about the future use of the property. At the same time, it was revealed that the project team would coordinate security requirements with the Fairfax County Park Authority for access along the Telegraph Road perimeter to construct a multi-use trail.

The building has been vacant since 2015. Constructed by the Army in 1958, it previously housed the Air Force Technical Applications Center and the Defense Nuclear Agency. Its neighbor to the south is an Army Reserve Center. The trail will connect Lee District Park to Huntley Meadows Park along Telegraph Road.

RHCA will be interested to see what, if any, road improvements will be part of the project. Rush hour traffic has increased considerable because of new facilities at Fort Belvoir, so accommodations for access to the Telegraph Road site will need to be addressed.

Rose Hill Beauty Update

Rain and lack of interest have slowed the Rose Hill Beauty process for 2018. The rain ruined most of the May flowers. There has been only one property nominated by a neighbor. We will try to put together an abbreviated list over the next few months. It would be greatly appreciated if neighbors would take the time to nominate properties. Signs will be available ONLY to RHCA members. You can help speed the process by checking the membership list in this edition to see if a neighbor qualifies for a sign. It's a chore to cover all of Rose Hill, so your help is vital. Please send an e-mail at sellcarl@aol.com or leave a message at 703-971-4716.

A Friend Moves On

Lois Corbin has been a fixture on Blossom Lane for many years. She is moving to Sunrise Assisted Living on Franconia Road at Commerce Street across from Springfield Mall. She invited all her friends and neighbors to visit her there. The house originally was owned by her parents, Margaret and Hilbert Lacey, who moved to Rose Hill in 1968. When they moved to Colonial Beach, Lois continued to live in the house on Blossom Lane. Long-time Rose Hill residents will recall the annual Christmas light display there for many years. Lois' mom worked for the government and her dad for Fruit Growers, the company that manufactured and serviced refrigerated railroad cars. It was located along the railroad just below Duke Street for many years. Lois worked for United Airline for 31 years, then was a greeter at the Kingstowne Wal-Mart for another 20 years. Her grandchildren and their mother continue to live on Split

Rock Road in a house Lois and her son, Steve, owned. Steve passed away suddenly several years ago.

More Old Timers

Nouri and Suham Abbou have lived on Rose Hill Drive across from the shopping center for more than 50 years. They moved here in 1967. Carl and Marti Sell lived on Roundhill Road for a few years in the early 1960s before moving to Cottonwood Drive. Others who lived in Rose Hill 50 years or more includes Louise Westgate on Greendale Road, Fran Watts on Haystack Road, the Simms on Carriage Drive, the Dockerys and Ciccotellis on Carriage Drive and the Calhouns on Apple Tree Drive. Let us know if there are any others who haven't been mentioned in the Rambler or are not included on the Rose Hill Originals sign at the library.

Membership for 2018

The updated list of members is printed for the last time this year in this issuer of The Rambler. The bad news is that we are far short of a representative number of people who care enough about their community to support our effort. The good news is that the majority those who do are generous enough in their support so we can continue. If your name is not on the list, please consider helping support your community by joining RHCA. Our goal is to continue Rose Hill as a pleasant and safe community in which to live. If you care about how your community looks, join with your neighbors who help keep it that way. If you don't, rest assured we will report violations and unlawful activities to the proper authorities.

-Carl Sell

Special Story: Return to Rose Hill...

Since her daughter, Anna, was coming to Baltimore for a conference in her role as a librarian, Linda McMurray Duer decided to come along to visit her father’s grave at Arlington National Cemetery. Helped along by prodding from Anna, she also decided to try to find the home she left in 1958. She remembered living on Rose Hill Drive and riding her bike with her best friend, Libby, who lived nearby.

Duer had lots of pictures of her growing up in Rose Hill, many clearly showing the house number, 4207 Rose Hill Drive. Unfortunately, Fairfax County changed all the house numbers in the early 1960s, so she wasn’t sure which one was her childhood home. The picture of Duer and her friend Libby riding bikes way back when provided the clue. Linda said the picture was taken in front of her house. Behind her in the picture is the old farm house that existed on Bee Street before the new houses there were built. The house across the street in the immediate background is the only one of two on Rose Hill Drive that sits at an angle. The other one faces it across the street.

It became clear that the house where Linda McMurray lived in the late 1950s now was 6416 Rose Hill Drive and owned by David and Linda Nichols, who have lived there since 1974. And Linda Nichols remembered Linda McMurray’s friend, Libby, as Elizabeth Anderson, who lived across the street on Hayfield Place. Linda Nichols pulled out her 1971 Edison High School yearbook and Duer identified Libby as one of the graduates pictured. She and Libby haven’t seen each other since they both were 21 years old. RHCA now will turn to the Franconia Museum to see if Libby Anderson can be found.

Mary Smith, who lives nearby and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Franconia Museum, identified the old farm house shown in the picture as the one that was demolished when Bee Street was established. Smith said the surveyors ran into a swarm of bees when they first arrived, so the street name was a good fit. Ironically, David Nichols had two aunts who lived on Rock-A-By Road, immediately behind the farm house. Mary Smith recalled that that street got its name because all of the women who lived there were pregnant at the time the County was naming streets. Smith has lived in Franconia all her life, moving to Rose Hill in 1970. Her dad was the first paid fireman at the Franconia Volunteer Fire Department and her mother taught at Franconia School.

Linda McMurray Duer and Anna visited Rose Hill on Thursday, June 14, 2018. They made contact with RHCA through myrosehill.com. Carl Sell and Linda Nichols invited the Duers to visit Linda at her home, not realizing that it would turn out to be the house the visitors were trying to find. The longer everyone compared old pictures with today's landscapes, the more apparent it became that the search ended right where they were standing. Later on, Connie Beatty interrupted her busy schedule and stopped by to put her seal of approval on what the group had decided. After all, Mrs. Beatty moved to Rose Hill in December 1954 and therefore is the recognized authority on community history.

Linda McMurray moved with her mother, Penny, younger brother, David, and older brother, Randy, to Coldwater, Kansas in 1958 after her parents, Cecil (Mac) McMurray and Hazel Pennington McMurray, were divorced. Linda McMurray Duer now is a CPA in San Clemente, California. Her daughter lives near Los Angeles. Mac McMurray was a member of the Army signal corps in World War II and later operated the radar at National Airport.
