

Suffering and Glory: They Go Hand in Hand
1 Peter 4:12-19; 5:9-11

Peter continues to reinforce his teaching on suffering by continuing his connection between the sufferings of Christ and the sufferings of Christ followers. Peter shares with us the reality that we shall all share in the sufferings of Christ if we are following Him. (2 Tim 3:10-13)

First, let us consider what Peter has to say about _____.

- Suffering should not take us by _____, as though some _____ thing is happening to us. (12)
- Suffering is often _____ by God for the purpose of testing us. (12b)
- Suffering for the believer is tempered by _____. (13-14)
- When suffering for the cause of Christ, a Christian is not to be _____. (16)
- Suffering may be in _____ with the will of God. (19)
- Suffering is a _____ shared experience. (5:9)
- All suffering, for the Christian, will come to an end. (5:10-11)

Next, let us consider what Peter says about _____.

- Rejoicing in suffering now brings the greater rejoicing when we see His _____. (13b)
- We are blessed when reviled because the _____ of glory rests on us. (14)
- We glorify the _____ of God when we suffer as a Christian. (16)
- God _____ us in our suffering for His eternal glory. (5:10)

Case Study: The Apostle Paul – 2 Corinthians 11:23-33; 12:7-10

- A higher purpose in the _____. (12:7)
- There is grace given amidst the _____. (12:8a)
- There is blessing through the _____. (12:8b)
- There is contentment through _____. (12:10)

May the children of God draw near to Him, glory in Him, be satisfied in Him, and be strengthened by Him in our time of testing, trial, suffering, and adversity! Amen!

Family in Need: On Sunday, August 28th, we will receive a "love offering" for the Dutton Family. The last six months or so have been very difficult for Brian & Sherry. Brian had emergency heart surgery in March with medical expenses incurred. Then within the last couple months both Brian and Sherry lost their jobs in the mortgage industry. Last week Brian had Covid, and Sherry's grandfather passed away in the Philippines. This expression of love will show our support and help them during this difficult season. Thank you in advance for loving well.

Our next One Body Service is September 4. We will have a combined Sunday school and 10:30 worship service, followed by lunch in the Fellowship Hall. There will not be an evening service that night in honor of Labor Day, and the office will be closed on September 5.
