*You ask me how I know it's true
That there is a living God—
A God who rules the universe,
The sky. . . the sea. . . the sod;*

*A God who holds all creatures
In the hollow of His hand;
A God who put infinity
In one tiny grain of sand;*

*A God who made the seasons—
Winter, Summer, Fall and Spring,
And put His flawless rhythm
Into each created thing;*

*A God who hangs the sun out
Slowly with the break of day,
And gently takes the stars in
And puts the night away;*

*A God whose mighty handiwork
Defies the skill of man,
For no architect can alter
God's perfect master plan—*

*What better answers are there
To prove His Holy Being
Than the wonders all around us
That are ours just for the seeing.
