Announcements

We are grateful to our church family for the many ways you were Jesus with skin on during this difficult time of Mel's death. Thank you to all the friends who set up tables and chairs, parked cars, made food, coordinated the serving, cleaned up, and helped in so many other ways. Your hugs and words of comfort are hidden deep inside us for the times of loneliness and sadness yet to come.

Cathy Spory and Family

I affirm that God's Word to me is, "Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." (Galatians 1:3)

I affirm that it was for freedom that Christ has set me free. I therefore choose to keep standing firm and no longer be subject to the yoke of slavery. (Galatians 5:1)

I affirm that the purpose of the Law was to show me my need for Christ, but now that faith has come, I am no longer under the Law. (Galatians 3:24-25)

I affirm that I am now an unconditionally loved, accepted, and secure child of God in Christ. (Galatians 3:26; Ephesians 1:5-6)

I affirm that I am now dead to the Law through the body of Christ and that I have been joined to the risen Christ in order to bear much fruit for God. (Romans 7:4)

I affirm that I am a living sacrifice through Jesus Christ and that my life's purpose is to please Him, not others. (Galatians 1:10)

I affirm that God's strength is now made perfect in my weakness and that His grace is sufficient for me. (2 Corinthians 12:9)

I affirm that, having begun by the Spirit, I am not going to finish through the flesh, but through the transforming power of the Spirit of freedom. (Galatians 3:3; 2 Corinthians 3:17-18) Therefore I affirm that by the grace of God I am what I am and that by His grace I stand. (1 Corinthians 15:10; Romans 5:2)

All to the praise of His glorious grace, which He freely bestowed on me in Christ. (Ephesians 1:6)
