

Sunday Morning Classes
February 1, 2026 through April 26, 2026
Class Cancellations/Modifications: March 29, 2026

Title: The Life and Writings of the Apostle Paul: A Chronological Study from Acts and the Pauline Letters
Teacher: Tom Rucker (108-109 – Former Legacy Room)

Saul, also known as Paul and the Apostle to the Gentiles, is the most prominent character subject in the book of Acts and the most prolific writer of letters in the New Testament. In this study, we will follow Paul through the book of Acts, utilizing The Visual Bible's word-for-word (NIV) visual dramatization of The Book of Acts. We will tie in the main teachings of Paul in his letters in chronological order where they fit into his journeys in the book of Acts and beyond. Come and experience what Paul has to say to churches and his co-missionaries in their historical and chronological context and discover their application to us today.

Title: Teachings of Jesus
Teacher: Jay Sellers (111-113A)

In the discussion class this spring quarter we will be studying the teachings of Jesus from the gospels so that we may further who we should be in response to these teachings. This class we will be heavily focused on group prayer, self-examination, reflection, group conversation, and application of the text each week. This is so we might learn from one another and grow together in our discipleship of Jesus and grow stronger in our relationships with one another. So please join us this quarter to discuss the teachings of Jesus and grow with us in Christlikeness.

Title: The Many Faces of Grace (Women's class)
Teacher: Ashli Komistek (115A)

How can we receive and give God's grace today? This spring quarter, we will walk dusty paths with our teacher, Jesus, as he encounters a wide range of people with differing personalities and situations. Our Savior will amaze us as he ministers specifically to the deepest heart needs of each individual. We will begin to see ourselves and others in the human struggle of these Bible characters. We will begin to hear the timeless call of Jesus to release faith barriers and embrace obedient grace. Together, we will learn how to access this grace for ourselves and will be fortified, through the example of Jesus, to give grace to others. Come journey with other women in this fun and fruitful discussion-based class. No book or preparation is required.

Title: The Last Week of Christ
Teacher: Mitchel Routh (Rotunda)

Six days. That is all that is left. Flabbergasted and dumbfounded, the disciples return with their rabbi to Jerusalem. Finally, even he admits the time has come. With the memory of past stoning attempts on their lives all too fresh on their minds, they are ready to see their master that can raise the dead overthrow the corrupt temple leadership and Rome. What awaits them is a tale of palm branches, fig trees, widows, gardens, trials, and ultimately - sorrow. These last moments tell so much more than last days of Messiah. They outline the foundation of how life for us can never be the same. Join us as we follow that trek, day by day.