*Living Hope
The Joy of the Lord*

Goodbye 2024 . . . Hello, 2025!

I read the following passage last Sunday at our call to worship, and I want to revisit it with you in our farewell to 2024 and our welcome to 2025.

In discussing our relationships with each other, with our varying degrees of strengths and weaknesses, Paul says . . .

For none of us lives for ourselves alone, and none of us dies for ourselves alone. If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.~ Romans 14:7-8

I can confidently say that this past year has brought some of you wonderful things you didn't expect. And it has visited misfortune and sorrow upon others of you.

One thing remained constant: We are the Lord's!

And regardless of the circumstances that life will bring us in 2025 - we will continue to be the Lord's!

I know from personal experience - as do you - that life can bring bitter wounds or sweet blessings. I also share with you the feeling that it's hard to see the Lord at work during some seasons of our life.

I'm equally confident that -- having passed through the valley -- the Lord walks with each of us, regardless of how difficult it may be to see His presence at that time.

All that to say, goodbye 2024! And welcome 2025, whatever it brings! Because we belong to the Lord!

Ah, Lord, we look to you to be with us. Let us walk with you. Forgive us when we fail you. Guide us, because we need You. And we know, whether in life or in death, we are yours!
In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Blessings in this New Year for you and yours!

~ Harvey
