When Adult Children Leave the Church

This Wednesday night February, 19, Gerald Merritt and I will present part one of “When Adult Children Leave the Church.’ Part two will be presented on Wednesday night March 5. Do you know of anyone that could use these lessons?

The first night we will cover why our adult children leave the church. We will be discussing coping skills in Part Two. These lessons will also be valuable for those who have children that have not reached adulthood. A number of reasons adult children leave the church is because of events that happened during their childhood and teen years.

On Wednesday night, February 5, Ben Olafsen talked with us about the Children’s Ministry. He mentioned how all of us help to build the faith of the children. One reason adult children give for leaving the church is that our parents gave us their faith, but did not allow us to build our own faith foundation.

If you can use these lessons and have friends that would benefit from these lessons, please join us this Wednesday night in the chapel at 7:00 p.m.
