Be Positive and Let the Spirit Work

Mark 5:19 - However, Jesus did not permit him, but said to him, "Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you." NKJV

"...That our neighbors may know Jesus."

5 Reasons Not to Bad Mouth the Church

One of the good things, besides Mark Adams, that came out of the preacher search and Covid was the number of preachers I watched on the internet. Four of those preachers became my friends, and I still watch their sermons and stay in contact with them. Recently, Chris McCurley preached a sermon titled "5 Reasons Not to Bad Mouth the Church." Chris has permitted me to give you his 5 reasons

1. Because Jesus died for it
2. Because you are a part of it.
3. Because Jesus and his Church cannot be separated.
4. Because numerous Christians have died for the privilege of coming together to worship God.
5. Because the church was God's idea.

Here at Tusculum, we are a family. Let us continue to be positive and allow the Spirit to work through us.

~Earl Santymire

Thank You

The Benevolent Committee would like to update you on Tusculum's Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays, which you so generously helped to make such a great success.

Thanksgiving was great—we were able to help 52 families. This was a very unusual year, as the Children's Education Department collected money and purchased so many canned goods that we will not need to ask for food for a while. We are so thankful for the teachers and helpers who assisted in such a thoughtful and wonderful program, they shared with the children. The children now know what we do and what a blessing it is to others what they did!

Christmas was outstanding—no, it was fantastic! We were able to assist 73 children and their families. You, as a church family, donated money, some of you gave up your time to shop, several shopped and assisted that way, delivering, and even the last weekend, some still offered money or even to shop. The Youth Group took 5 children and did an awesome job with their shopping! One of the best!

There are too many helpers to mention, but we are thankful from the bottom of our hearts for all the shoppers, donors, time, and help you gave.

God's Blessings and Gratitude,
The Benevolent Committee
