WINTER GAMES LESSON 4

5 SIMPLE WAYS
YOU CAN MAKE
THIS LESSON STICK
WITH YOUR KIDS

THIS WEEK'S LESSON:

5 Simple Ways to Make This Week's Lesson Stick

IN THE CAR:

Skeleton is one of the most dangerous events at the Winter Olympics where athletes put their safety at risk. King Darius threw Daniel into the den of lions. The next morning, he was probably expecting to see only Daniel's skeleton. But Daniel had put his safety in God's hands, and God had seen him through.

HANGING OUT:

Have you ever experienced a time when it felt risky to talk about your faith? What about that situation made you feel unsure?

AT DINNER:

When are some times that you might have the opportunity to talk about or demonstrate your faith?

How do you think we should respond if someone believes differently from us? Who is someone you know who is good at sharing their faith?

AT BEDTIME:

"He sets people free and saves them. He does miraculous signs and wonders. He does them in the heavens and on the earth. He has saved Daniel from the power of the lions." Daniel 6:27 (NIRV)

PARENT TIME:

Especially in the age of helicopter parenting, our kids sometimes don't have the opportunity to take risks in the same way as previous generations. Still, kids need to learn to take risks. Risks build confidence in themselves and trust in their grown-ups and in God. What small risk can you encourage your child to take this week?
