OPENING RESPONSIVE READING (based on Isaiah 58:1–9, Psalm 112, and Matthew 5:13–20)

Blessed are those who delight in the ways of the Lord.

We gather to praise the God who calls us to shine with His light.

The righteous rise in the darkness as a light for others.

By God's grace, may our lives reflect His compassion and justice.

The Lord says, "Your light shall break forth like the dawn."

Heal us, renew us, and send us to bear Your light into the world.

Jesus calls us the salt of the earth and the light of the world.

Strengthen us to live in faith, serve in love, and honor Your name.

Let us worship the Lord, who illuminates our path and sustains our hope.

We rejoice in God's presence and offer our praise.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray...

Lord God, with endless mercy you receive the prayers of all who call upon you. By your Spirit show us the things we ought to do, and give us the grace and power to do them, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

WE LISTEN TO GOD'S WORD

FIRST LESSON (Pew Bible p. 600)

Isaiah 58:1-12

Our first lesson is from the Old Testament book of the prophet Isaiah, the fifty-eighth chapter beginning with verse one.

<sup>1</sup> Shout out; do not hold back!

    Lift up your voice like a trumpet!

    Announce to my people their rebellion,
        to the house of Jacob their sins.

<sup>2</sup> Yet day after day they seek me
    and delight to know my ways,
as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness
    and did not forsake the ordinance of their God;
they ask of me righteous judgments;
    they want God on their side.

<sup>3</sup> "Why do we fast, but you do not see?

    Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?"

Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day and oppress all your workers.

<sup>4</sup> You fast only to quarrel and to fight

and to strike with a wicked fist.
Such fasting as you do today
    will not make your voice heard on high.

<sup>5</sup> Is such the fast that I choose,
    a day to humble oneself?
Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush
    and to lie in sackcloth and ashes?
Will you call this a fast,
    a day acceptable to the Lord?

<sup>6</sup> Is not this the fast that I choose:
    to loose the bonds of injustice,
    to undo the straps of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
    and to break every yoke?

<sup>7</sup> Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house;
when you see the naked, to cover them
    and not to hide yourself from your own kin?

<sup>8</sup> Then your light shall break forth like the dawn,
    and your healing shall spring up quickly;
your vindicator shall go before you;
    the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.

<sup>9a</sup> Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer;
    you shall cry for help, and he will say, "Here I am."
If you remove the yoke from among you,
    the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, <sup>10</sup> if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness
    and your gloom be like the noonday.

<sup>11</sup> The Lord will guide you continually and satisfy your needs in parched places and make your bones strong,
and you shall be like a watered garden,
    like a spring of water
    whose waters never fail.

<sup>12</sup> Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt;
    you shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
you shall be called the repairer of the breach,
    the restorer of streets to live in.

This is the word of God.
Thanks be to God.

Our Psalm for today is Psalm one hundred twelve, verses one through ten. I invite the congregation to read it aloud with me.

<sup>1</sup> Praise the Lord!

Happy are those who fear the Lord,
who greatly delight in his commandments.

<sup>2</sup> Their descendants will be mighty in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

<sup>3</sup> Wealth and riches are in their houses,
and their righteousness endures forever.

<sup>4</sup> They rise in the darkness as a light for the upright;
they are gracious, merciful, and righteous.

<sup>5</sup> It is well with those who deal generously and lend,
who conduct their affairs with justice.

<sup>6</sup> For the righteous will never be moved;
they will be remembered forever.

<sup>7</sup> They are not afraid of evil tidings;
their hearts are firm, secure in the Lord.

<sup>8</sup> Their hearts are steady; they will not be afraid;
in the end they will look in triumph on their foes.

<sup>9</sup> They have distributed freely; they have given to the poor;
their righteousness endures forever;
their horn is exalted in honor.

<sup>10</sup> The wicked see it and are angry;
they gnash their teeth and melt away;
the desire of the wicked comes to nothing.

This is God's Word.

Thanks be to God.

Our second lesson is from the New Testament, the Apostle Paul's first letter to the church in Corinth, the second chapter, beginning with verse one.

<sup>1</sup> When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the testimony of God to you with superior speech or wisdom. <sup>2</sup> For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. <sup>3</sup> And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. <sup>4</sup> My speech and my proclamation were made not with persuasive words of wisdom but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup> so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

<sup>6</sup> Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are being destroyed.<sup>7</sup> But we speak God's wisdom, a hidden mystery, which God decreed before the ages for our glory<sup>8</sup> and which none of the rulers of this age understood, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.<sup>9</sup> But, as it is written,

“What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,
nor the human heart conceived,
what God has prepared for those who love him”—

<sup>10</sup> God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.<sup>11</sup> For what human knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God.<sup>12</sup> Now we have received not the spirit of the world but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.<sup>13</sup> And we speak of these things in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual things to those who are spiritual.

<sup>14</sup> Those who are unspiritual do not receive the gifts of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to them, and they are unable to understand them because they are spiritually discerned.<sup>15</sup> Those who are spiritual discern all things, and they are themselves subject to no one else's scrutiny.

<sup>16</sup> “For who has known the mind of the Lord
so as to instruct him?”

But we have the mind of Christ.

This is God's Word.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as you are able, for the reading of the Gospel.

GOSPEL READING (Pew Bible p. 786)

Matthew 5:13-20

The Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew, the fifth chapter beginning with verse thirteen.

Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said:] <sup>13</sup>“You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything but is thrown out and trampled under foot.

<sup>14</sup>“You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. <sup>15</sup>People do not light a lamp and put it under the bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. <sup>16</sup>In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

<sup>17</sup>“Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. <sup>18</sup>For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>20</sup>For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Apostles’ Creed

Gathered as a Christian community let us together confess our faith in our Triune God using the words of the Apostle’s Creed.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
    was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
    and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

WE CELEBRATE OUR LORD'S SUPPER

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory. In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son, who reached out to heal the sick and suffering, who preached good news to the poor, and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup and gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

CALL TO CHRIST'S TABLE

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory. Pour out your Holy Spirit, that by this Holy Communion we may know the unity we share with all your people in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Let us pray...

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
