THE PALOMA PROJECT
"A PLACE TO SET HER FEET"

She is advocating for herself,
as well as standing up for others.

Hi Friend,

Six months ago we welcomed a full time resident at Paloma!

This young woman was in crisis. Left vulnerable due to cognitive impairment, she was living a life of abuse and neglect. Since coming to Paloma, her communication has improved. She is beginning to understand her worth and value, leading her to advocate for herself and others.

We also welcomed a short term resident into Paloma a month ago. During her stay, she learned to create healthy, healing habits and began to live more and more in community. She has transitioned back to her home, where she is adjusting well, continuing to grow in confidence, and is working full time as an artisan.

These women are so different. Yet they both found mercy at Palmona.

You can help more women receive healing and find the resources they need to thrive today!
