Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

What does “sacrament” mean? We get the word “sacrament” from the Latin sacramentum, which means “mystery” or “secret.” Unlike those who believe that the Lord’s Supper are merely rites to perform as commanded by Jesus, the Bible teaches that there is something more spiritually mysterious and profound about these two acts. The mystery is that Christ is uniquely present in these observances in a way that is like no other. These two particular ordinances of baptism and the Lord’s Supper are set apart as beautiful yet mysterious encounters with Jesus Himself. For instance, in Communion, we don’t merely remember Christ’s sacrifice, we mysteriously “participate” in it (see 1 Cor. 10:16). Sacraments are more than mere ordinances, for in them we experience Christ Himself. Our veiled understanding of the details of how this occurs is precisely why they are, and ever will be, a mystery.

Why pray the Lord’s Prayer? We repeat the Lord’s Prayer monthly not simply because “it’s tradition.” We do so because we realize that Jesus, in this prayer, gave us the model for how to pray. The prayer begins first with praise by recognizing that God is wholly “other” when compared to us (“Our Father, who art in heaven) and by proclaiming His holiness (“hallowed be Thy name”). It then moves into peti-

Prayer for the Week

God of blazing light,
through the power of the cross you shattered our darkness,
scattering the fears that bind us
and setting us free to live as your children.
Give us courage and conviction,
that we may joyfully turn and follow you
into new adventures of faithful service,
led by the light that shines
through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.
(from The Worship Sourcebook, 2nd ed.).

tion ...asking God for things. But notice how the petitions begin—"Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done"—reminding us that we ask God for things according to His will. Thirdly, "give us this day our daily bread" reminds us that the necessities of life come to us from God's gracious hand. Likewise, forgiveness is not something we deserve, but something for which we must lean on God. Fourthly, the prayer ends with a humble acknowledgement of Who is in control ("For Thine is the kingdom"). Look back at the prayer and notice that all the pronouns are plural. Jesus was teaching us to pray in community rather than merely as individuals.

When you are stuck in prayer; when you find your mind wandering or your heart faltering, remember this model, and let it guide you back into meaningful conversation with God.

May We Pray With You? When we join together in prayer, there is a particular power available from God. If you would like prayer and/or prayer for healing, please come forward after the service to find a pastor or elder and we'd love to pray for you and/or anoint you with oil (per James 5).

Giving In response to God's goodness, we are called to offer our whole selves—heart and mind, soul, and strength—in joyful adoration in our daily lives. One way we do that is through giving financially, which you can do in person after the service, by mail or here:
