What You Need

 Offering Container	1
 Chopsticks	Several
 Bowls	Several
 Candy hearts (or small foam hearts)	Several

What You Do:

- Welcome kids by name as they arrive with a high-five, fist bump, or a wave.
- Invite any kids who brought an offering to place it in the offering container.
- Divide the group into two teams.
- Give each team two bowls—one filled with hearts and one empty—and one pair of chopsticks. Place the bowls two feet apart.
- Explain that this is a race.
- The first kid on each team is to use the chopsticks to pick up one heart, and move it to the empty bowl. They are not allowed to use their hands, only the chopsticks.
- If they drop the heart, instruct them to pick it back up with the chopsticks and try again.
- After they drop their heart in the bowl, direct the first kid to pass the chopsticks to the next kid.
- The first team to move all of their hearts to the new bowl wins.

What You Say:

"Nice work! That required some serious skill and concentration.

[Transition] In our true story from the Bible today, a man named Zacchaeus was a chief tax collector who was focused on gaining more and more money. He was very good at taking money from people. But when he met Jesus, his focus completely changed, and he wanted to make things right."

Preteen – Bible Story Extension | Made to Play

What You Need

- Prepared bottle of water with "Zacchaeus" label

1

What You Do:

- Ask: "What was the biggest change you saw in Zacchaeus after he met Jesus?" (He went from selfish and greedy to generous and fair.)
- Show the group the water bottle. Tell them this is the "Zacchaeus Bottle Flip Challenge."
- Let kids take turns trying to flip the water bottle and have it land standing up.
- Explain that just like flipping the water bottle can completely change its position, Jesus' love completely flipped Zacchaeus's life around.
- Discuss the following questions:
 - Why do you think Jesus chose to spend time with Zacchaeus when everyone else disliked him?
 - How do you think Zacchaeus felt when Jesus called him by name and wanted to come to his house?
 - What does this story show you about how Jesus sees people—especially those who have made wrong choices?

What You Say:

"It's amazing to think about how much Zacchaeus changed in one day. Jesus didn't condemn him or order him to pay everyone back. Jesus simply made it clear how much He loved him. Jesus looked up into the sycamore-fig tree and said, 'Zacchaeus, come down at once. I must stay at your house today' (Luke 19:5 NIV). That love transformed him from the inside out. Zacchaeus went from being someone nobody trusted to someone who was making things right and being generous, promising to pay back four times the amount he took. It's proof that [Bottom Line] the love of Jesus can change things for the better."

Preteen – Take a Snapshot | Made to Imagine

What You Need

-  Whiteboard and dry-erase marker (or large paper and marker) 1

What You Do:

- Tell the group that you're going to create a "Top Ten" list together.
- The title of the list is: "Top Ten Ways to Share the Love of Jesus." Write that across the top of the board.
- Challenge the group to brainstorm a list of ten practical, everyday ways they can show Jesus' love to the people around them.
- Write their ideas on the board. Encourage them to be specific.
 - Instead of "be nice," maybe "invite someone new to sit with my group at lunch."
 - Instead of "help people," maybe "ask my parents if I can help with a chore before they ask me."
- Keep brainstorming until you have a solid list of ten great ideas.

What You Say:

"This is an incredible list that we can put into action. Zacchaeus didn't just feel bad about his choices; he made a plan to change. He took action. The people in the crowd who saw Jesus go to a 'sinner's' house didn't understand. But Jesus said He, the Son of Man, came to look for the lost and save them. Every item on this list is a way to show that [Bottom Line] the love of Jesus can change things for the better."

 Paper	4
 Marker	1
 Tape	1

EveryChild Tips

EveryChild Pro-Tips:

- Pair students up so they can travel to the corners together, providing support and encouragement.
- Make sure you place the numbers in accessible locations for all kids.

What You Do:

- Write the numbers 1 through 4 on the paper.
- Tape one paper in each corner of the room or in your small group space.
- Open the Bible and read John 13:34 to the group.
- Instruct the kids to start in the middle of the room/space.
- Tell them to move to a corner while you count to ten.
- Call out "Corner 1!" and instruct the kids in Corner 1 to say the Memory Verse together.
- Direct the kids to return to the middle of the room/space.
- Tell them to move to a corner while you count to ten.
- Call out "Corner 3!" and instruct the kids in Corner 3 to say the Memory Verse together.
- Continue to play as time allows.

What You Say:

"Great job! You were all over the room for that one. Jesus' command to love is something that should follow us everywhere we go. Jesus showed Zacchaeus unconditional love and gave him an opportunity to make things right. When we obey that command to love others, we see that [Bottom Line] the love of Jesus can change things for the better."

Preteen Discussion Questions

What You Need

No supplies needed

What You Do:

Ask:

- Zacchaeus climbed a tree just to see Jesus. What do you think made him so eager to see Jesus—and what might that say about what was missing in his life?
- Jesus called Zacchaeus by name and wanted to spend time with him, even though others called Zacchaeus a “sinner.” What does this teach you about how Jesus sees people who have messed up or feel left out?
- Zacchaeus didn’t just feel loved—he changed. Why do you think experiencing Jesus’ love made Zacchaeus want to make things right instead of being told to?
- The crowd judged Zacchaeus and whispered about him, but Jesus chose kindness. When have you seen someone judged by others, and how could you respond more like Jesus in that kind of moment?
- The story says that the love of Jesus changes people. How has knowing that Jesus loves you—no matter what—changed the way you see yourself or treat others?
