Pt. 1: “Bring What You Have”

February 22, 2026

Key Scripture and Ideas

- Matthew 14:16 – “They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat.”
- Matthew 14:18 – “Bring them here to me.”
- Faith has always been about trust. From the beginning, the issue has been whether we will trust God’s heart.
- God grows our faith by inviting us outside our comfort zone and saying, “You meet the need.”
- You are not responsible for the impossible. You are responsible for bringing what you have.
- You do the possible — and trust God for the impossible.

Start Talking: Find a conversation starter for your group.

- When was the last time you tried something new that stretched you? What made it uncomfortable?
- What’s something you once said, “I could never do that,” but eventually did?
- Have you ever felt completely unqualified for something you were asked to do? What happened?

Start Thinking. Ask questions to get your group thinking.

- In your own words, why is trust the foundation of our relationship with God?
- Where does distrust of God most often show up in adult life? (Finances? Parenting? Career? Health? Control?)
- Why do you think God grows our faith by stretching us rather than keeping us comfortable?
- What stands out to you about Jesus telling the disciples, “You give them something to eat”?

Start Sharing. Choose questions that create openness.

- Is there an area right now where you feel a tension or internal nudge from God? What is it?
- How can you tell the difference between guilt and God’s leading?
- What excuses tend to surface when you sense God asking you to step out?
- The disciples simply did what they knew how to do and trusted Jesus to do the rest. What does that look like in your life right now?
- Can you share a time when you stepped out in obedience and saw God show up?

Start Praying. Be bold, and pray specifically.

Heavenly Father, the issue has always been trust. Grow our faith. Stretch us beyond comfort. Give us courage to bring You what we have — even when it feels small. Teach us to do what we can do and trust You to do what only You can do. Deepen our intimacy with You as our faith grows. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Start Doing. Commit to a step, and live it out this week.

- What is one area where you sense God nudging you?
- What do you feel like you don’t have in that situation? Take that honestly before the Lord.
- What is one small thing you DO have that you can bring to Jesus this week?
