CLERGY CORNER

Rev. Barry Kidwell

Brother Andrew is a Christian leader that has influenced my life in many ways. He smuggled Bibles across "The Iron Curtain" for many years. When communism fell, he began smuggling Bibles into Muslim countries that are hostile to the Gospel of Christ. Something he said stuck with me for a long time. He said he has a quote pasted in the cover of his Bible. It reads, "Either a man must be challenged or he must be entertained." He explains why by saying, "God's Word is not meant to entertain us. It is not even intended to make us happy. Rather, it is intended to make other people happy through us—when we accept the challenge God has given us to fulfill the Great Commission in whatever circumstances we find ourselves. I thought about this while attending one of those UMC meetings on a Saturday a couple of weeks ago and the speaker reminded us of our vision to make disciples. I often wonder in this world, how much of Christian worship is entertainment to get people to come back next week, and how much of it is a challenge to go make disciples. Every morning when we wake up, we should be conscious that we have the opportunity to bring Christ's presence into the relationships of our daily lives. So often I hear people say "we want our cup filled." Does that equal entertain me? I don't know. All I know is that in my 47th year of ministry, I want to stay thirsty. I don't want to ever be satisfied that I have enough of God or that I have done enough. I pray that I want to be challenged and not entertained. I haven't pasted that quote in my Bible yet, but maybe I will. What will you paste in your Bible?

Geaux Tigers,
Barry

This month in Preschool our theme is Sweet Treats: Jesus Loves Me! Love is a word used for many things. We love chocolate. We love puppies. We love naps. But the love Jesus gives us is in a category all by itself. It's a love that is greater than any other love. It's a love that Jesus has for everyone, and it will never end. Our memory verse is "Jesus said, 'Let the children come to me.'" (Matthew 19:14 NLT)

This month, Elementary's theme is "Like and Subscribe! Share the Love of Jesus". God's Big Story shows how Jesus showed His love to everyone. When we follow Jesus, we can love others just like Jesus. Our memory verse is "I give you a new command. Love one another. You must love one another, just as I have loved you." (John 13:34, NIV)
