Ladies Lunch & Learn

Our January Ladies Lunch and Learn was so much fun! We continue with our theme, "Can I Get A Witness?" learning about women in the Bible who made a big impact on others, as God used them for greater Kingdom work. Our focus for January was Lydia, the first European convert to Christianity, an influential businesswoman who offered her gifts of hospitality and resources to the church, and a dealer in purple cloth. We studied a map showing the Apostle Paul's second missionary journey that led him to Macedonia where he met Lydia. The ladies had fun searching on their phones, discovering fun facts about Lydia to add to our discussion. Our Ladies Lunch and Learn is a wonderful opportunity for women to gather, have a great time together, share a meal, and build relationships! Our next Ladies Lunch and Learn is Wednesday, April 15. We meet at Davison's Restaurant at 11:30 am. All women are invited to participate. You do not need to be a member of Saint Luke UMC, so bring a friend! For more information, contact Rev. Charlotte Brendel. (see more pictures on page 4)

Take Part in a Denomination-wide Survey

We have received a request from Bishop Connie Mitchell Shelton to share this opportunity with our congregation. This survey is authorized by the Council of Bishops and is designed to listen to United Methodists across our connection about the present and future of the United Methodist Church. The survey will be open from January 15 – February 15, 2026, and can be accessed using the QR code below. This is an important opportunity for clergy and laity alike to speak faithfully and prayerfully into the life of our Church. The survey is estimated to take only ten minutes. Let your voice be heard!

CHURCH COUNCIL

MEETING

Sunday, February 1
6:00 pm - Casey Chapel

The Pastors' Page

The passage of time tends to blur our memories, leaving us with only brief snippets of certain events. That is how I recall a retreat I attended years ago. There was a rustic campground and a group of folks enjoying fellowship and time apart from their usual tasks. While the children and youth enjoyed their own meetings, the adults participated in seminars led by a beautiful, gracious woman with an amazing smile. She taught us about inner healing—addressing those wounds that we all carry within us in order for us to move forward in our lives, especially our spiritual lives.

As the retreat drew to a close that weekend, I was standing near a gentleman who asked the retreat leader, “Isn’t your brother running for President?” I was the busy mother of two young children—not attuned to who might be running for any political office. I was rather stunned when she smiled and replied, “Yes, my brother Jimmy is running for President!” The smile that the Reverend Ruth Carter Stapleton shared with her brother, Jimmy Carter, would soon become familiar throughout the nation and world. Each time I saw him make an appearance through the years, I was reminded of the petite woman whose mission was to offer Christ’s healing to the wounded. It is a lovely way for one to be remembered.

The Carter siblings came to mind this week as I read the texts for Sunday, February 1. They include Micah 6:1-8. (I invite you to read it.) Most preachers have likely written sermons based on the passage—myself included. If you were around in January, 1977, maybe you remember that the newly-elected President, Jimmy Carter, quoted Micah 6:8 in his inaugural address: “He has told you, O mortal, what is good, and what does the Lord require of you, but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God” (NRSV).

Politics aside, it is encouraging when persons of immense power and authority strive to follow such simple and profound life principles. These principles help shape a spiritual and moral compass within those who seek to live by them, creating a safer, more peaceful community in which we all may thrive.

The question that precedes the prophet’s response in verse 8 is one worth pondering from time-to-time: “With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before God on high?”

When I read these words, I envision myself kneeling before the Holy, with empty, upturned hands. I realize that I really have nothing tangible to offer. It’s not what I have gathered to myself that is important, but what I have given away. It’s not what I’ve achieved, but who I have been in this time allotted to me. It’s not what name I have made for myself, but the name that has been given to me—Christian. In my vision I am content, knowing that the light and warmth that surround me represent God’s unfailing love and grace.

Micah offers a way to offset the violence and chaos that has become so prevalent in our daily lives—at least in part. Our world and our nation cry out for people who will embrace Micah’s path to shaping a better reality for us all. May this be our prayer:

With God’s help and blessing, let me—let us—do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God.

Monday, February 9

Special Music by Chad Spivey and the Back Row Baptists

Guest Speaker: Danny Borrell

A devoted husband, loving father, faithful son, and a man after God's own heart, Danny Borrell grew up here in Sanford, North Carolina. He is the middle child of Jim and Ruthie Borrell and a son-in-law of Danny and Beth Hart. Danny was raised attending Saint Luke, where his faith was nurtured from a young age. A career in baseball eventually took Danny and his wife beyond North Carolina, carrying them all over the country. Today, they reside in Roswell, Georgia. Through every step and every season, Danny's path was orchestrated by our Heavenly Father—a truly blessed life.

Tuesday, February 10

Special Music by Drew Carnegie and Life N Music

Guest Speaker: Elizabeth Hart Lindsey

Elizabeth (Hart) Lindsey, from Sanford NC and daughter of Danny and Beth Hart; currently resides in Mt. Pleasant, NC with her husband and two daughters. After graduating from Appalachian State University in 1999, she married her college sweetheart, Brandon, and moved to Charlotte, NC. She has worked in the nonprofit sector for over 25 years, primarily with the YMCAs until 2016. During that time, in 2013, she and her husband also started a nonprofit, Dream On 3, which grants over the top sport dreams to children living with life altering conditions. Her faith has been an anchor for her family, and a lamp for her career and a light to her path, as it's helped her navigate some of the lowest valleys and highest peaks.

Wednesday, February 11

Special Music by Salt Creek Bluegrass and Gospel

Guest Speaker: Becky Balentine

Raleigh native Becky Balentine studied at Peace College after graduating from Broughton High School. She and her husband, John, raised four children and adore their gaggle of grandchildren and great grandchildren. Becky was also a huge support for John's restaurant and catering career through the years, including the beloved Balentine's Cafeteria in Raleigh's Cameron Village, which operated from the 1960s until closing in 1999. Becky has served in many leadership roles at Hayes Barton UMC, as well as in the Raleigh (now Capital) District and Conference. She has also served on staff for many years at the church, including creating and overseeing the Stephen Ministry and as Director of the Visitation Ministry. She is currently Hayes Barton's Director of InCrowd Ministry. Becky clearly has a heart for the Lord coupled with a practical application of hands-on ministry. Through all the seasons of her life, including the joys and sorrows, her impact has been far-reaching, whether it's been with her children's friends, Sunday School, Bible studies, congregational care, her family, the restaurant staff, or her neighbors. Her testimony is relatable and inspiring.

WE THANK OUR MEALS ON WHEELS VOLUNTEERS!

Many, many thanks to our Friends #3 Group and helpers for delivering Meals on Wheels in January. Our volunteers were: Tom Coggin, Pam Gordon, Marsha and Ted Havens, Kathy Jones, Susan Laudate, Ellen Mangum, Martha and Charles Oldham, Bob Sanford, and Molly Whitaker. Your faithfulness and dedication to this worthwhile ministry is greatly appreciated.

Saint Luke UMC is in charge of all the Mondays of the year. We have six groups delivering, so each group does two months. Our drivers cover five routes and deliver approximately 35 meals in total between 10 a.m. and 12 noon every Monday. In some cases, our drivers may be the only personal contact the client has that day. Deliveries are typically in teams, but it can be done individually.

We can always use more volunteers. You do not need to be a member of UMM, United Women in Faith, or other designated group. If you are interested in participating in this important ongoing ministry, please call Marsha Havens at 919-776-3624 for more information.

See It?? Say It!!

We are blessed with a wonderful facility in which to worship and serve God and we want to maintain it as God's house should be maintained! If you see anything around the church that needs attention ... things that are broken, dirty, need repair, light bulbs that need replacing, etc., please contact Rev. Charlotte Brendel at 919-776-2012 or charlottebrendel@yahoo.com. We need your help to "see" things in the building that need attention—and then to "say" what you have seen so that we can fix it!

Thursday Morning Bible Study Is Back After Our Holiday Break!

ADAM HAMILTON

Author of Half Truths and Creed

CHRISTIANITY AND WORLD RELIGIONS

REVISED EDITION

QUESTIONS WE ASK ABOUT OTHER FAITHS

Our Thursday Morning Bible Study resumed on January 8 at 10:30 am in Room #221/223. Bob Michaud is leading an Adam Hamilton study entitled, "Christianity and World Religions." In this study, Pastor and best-selling author Adam Hamilton explores four major world religions—Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam, and Judaism—and the beliefs of each with those of Christianity. In examining these major world religions and the beliefs of their followers, Hamilton urges us as Christians to build bridges with others so that we might grow in our faith, seek peace in our world, love our neighbor, and find positive ways to share the gospel. It's not too late to join! The group meets every Thursday morning at 10:30 am. Everyone is welcome!

*Who Will Go to Red Bird in 2026?
Here am I... send me!*

When brutal weather arrives, we're tempted to long for daffodils and warm, sunny days—or is that just me? Yet winter allows time for the earth to rest and for plants and trees to prepare for another showy spring. Red Bird Mission experiences a similar rhythm. Community outreach continues through various food, clothing, medical and educational ministries. The Work Camp staff, however, slows down a bit—taking time to assess needs that may be met by volunteers during the work season.

Work teams repeatedly return to Red Bird, arriving when winter's bite has passed. The place simply gets in your blood and in your spirit. Team members assist families who endure poverty and hardship daily, as well as help with repairs on the campus of this century-old Mission. Residents within the three-county area they serve depend on them—and the Mission depends on people like us. Saint Luke has traveled to Red Bird for eight, non-consecutive years. It is now time to plan our 9th adventure. If you have given thought to joining the Red Bird team and are able to donate five days in 2026 to help our Kentucky neighbors, please contact Rev. Judy Drye. The ministry done there is inspiring—and so is the view. As we hunker down in our warm homes this winter, may the Spirit lead us into how we may love and serve God and neighbor more fully.

a Member of Your Church Family!

Last year, our Prayer Team began the Prayer Bowl Project. The goal is to have every member held in prayer by name during each Sunday service whether you are in the sanctuary or at home. A new set of names has been made for this year. If you'd like to participate, come by the church office and draw a name, or call Laura in the church office (919-776-2012) and ask her to draw a name for you. You do not need to know anything about the person or family you have drawn. God already knows their every need! Can you imagine how God might smile to hear every member of Saint Luke's family held up in prayer each Sunday? When you become a member of the Saint Luke family, you will never walk alone again!
