

For Salvation

An unsaved person is both blind and deaf. Their hearts and minds are veiled to the Truth, and the enemy holds them captive by deception. Your "prayer accesses the power of God for the purposes of God. As we pray for lost people, God's power begins to flow into their lives and circumstances. Through prayer and the power it releases in a life, a lost person's will can be set free." And once their will is set free, they can choose a personal relationship with God with their eyes and ears wide open to the Truth of His love and salvation. (Setting the Captives Free, Jennifer Kennedy Dean)

Just as You have done with me, Lord, pick _____ up and set him/her down in highest heaven in company with Jesus, our Messiah.

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. Ephesians 2:8-10 (NASB) I realize that salvation comes from You, and therefore I am trusting You alone to save _____.

For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved.* Romans 10:9-10 (NLT)
