

Teacher Qualifications

1. Must be a member of the church, which means they are in agreement with our Doctrinal Statement.
2. Must have been a regular attender here for at least six months.
3. Must have been involved in some other ministry where others can observe them serving. Teaching adults and/or teens should not be their first area of service.
4. Be interviewed and approved by the senior pastor at which time they will have to give a clear Gospel Presentation, affirm the doctrine of Eternal Security, and share our view of End Time Events.
5. They must teach at least three lessons which are observed by a member of the Administrative Board of Elders and by the Senior Pastor before they are placed in a regular rotation of teaching adults and/or teens.
