

WEEK 5- SHARING YOUR FAITH

You talk about what you love. If Jesus has changed your life... Don't keep it to yourself.
"And each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved."— Acts 2:47

WHY SHARING YOUR FAITH MATTERS

Sharing your faith isn't being weird. It's being loving. It's not about having all the answers. It's about being faithful with what you do know.

When I share my faith, it produces:

- Purpose and meaning
- Hope and joy
- Peace and strength (even when I'm nervous)
- Identity alignment (I live like who I belong to)

PHILIP'S PLAN — Acts 8:26–35.

God gives us a simple model.

1. GO TO THEM

"Go south..." (Acts 8:26)

I'm not just living life... I'm sent.

This week I will live like I'm sent to:

- my neighborhood
- my friends and family
- my job
- my gym
- my school

Where has God sent me? _____

2. WALK WITH THEM

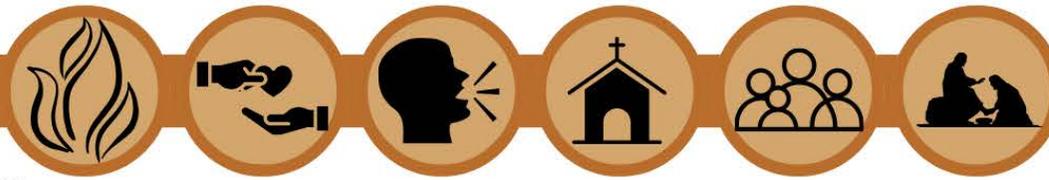

"Walk along beside the carriage..." (Acts 8:29)

Walking with people means living close enough to hear their heart.

Who is God calling me to walk with? _____

What do I need to pay attention to when I'm around them?

- what they're carrying
- what keeps coming up in conversation
- what they're searching for
- what they keep mentioning
- what they're afraid of

3. SIT WITH THEM

“He urged Philip to come up and sit with him.” (Acts 8:31)

Sitting builds:

- comfort
- space for real conversation
- trust

Who do I need to spend intentional time with this week? _____

What would “sitting with them” look like for me?

- coffee
- a double date
- lunch
- hunting / fishing / gym
- inviting them over
- just being present and listening

4. TALK WITH THEM

“Philip told him the Good News about Jesus.” (Acts 8:35)

At some point... you have to talk about Jesus.

A simple reminder: “I was blind, and now I can see.” (John 9:25)

I don’t need to know everything. I just need to share what Jesus has done in me.

My story in one sentence:

“Jesus changed me by _____.”

WALK. SIT. TALK.

Walking with them gets you near them.

Sitting with them earns the trust.

Talking with them brings the truth.

HOW TO LEAD SOMEONE TO JESUS

The ABCs of Salvation

A – Admit I have sinned (Romans 3:23)

B – Believe Jesus died and rose again (Romans 10:9)

C – Confess Jesus as Lord (Romans 10:13)

THIS WEEK’S CHALLENGE: JUST START

Ask God this week:

Who can I walk with? _____

Who can I sit with? _____

Who can I talk with? _____

MY PRAYER

Jesus, make me aware that I’m sent.

Give me courage to walk, sit, and speak.

Help me love people enough to share the hope that changed my life.
